

105TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 804

To restrict foreign assistance for countries providing sanctuary to indicted war criminals who are sought for prosecution before the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MAY 23, 1997

Mr. LAUTENBERG (for himself, Mr. LEAHY, Mr. LUGAR, Mrs. FEINSTEIN, Ms. MIKULSKI, Mrs. MURRAY, Mr. LIEBERMAN, Mr. D'AMATO, and Mr. MOYNIHAN) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

A BILL

To restrict foreign assistance for countries providing sanctuary to indicted war criminals who are sought for prosecution before the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “War Crimes Prosecu-
5 tion Facilitation Act of 1997”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 The Congress finds the following:

1 (1) In May 1993, the United Nations estab-
2 lished the International Criminal Tribunal for the 3 Former Yugoslavia (ICTY).

4 (2) The mandate of the Tribunal is to prosecute 5 “genocide, crimes against humanity, grave breaches 6 of the Geneva Conventions, and violations of the 7 laws and customs of war” committed in the territory
8 of the former Yugoslavia from January 1, 1991, 9 until “a date to be determined after restoration of 10 peace”.

11 (3) Parties to the Dayton Agreement, as well as 12 subsequent agreements, agreed to cooperate fully 13 with the “investigation and prosecution of war 14 crimes and other violations of international humani-15 tarian law”. All members of the international com-
16 munity are required by the Tribunal Statute to co-17 operate in “the identification and location of per-18 sons”, “the arrest or detention of persons”, and 19 “the surrender or the transfer of the accused” to the 20 Tribunal.

21 (4) Although 74 persons are under indictment
22 by the Tribunal, 66 remain at large, including 53 23 Bosnian and Yugoslav Serbs, and 13 Bosnian and 24 Croatian Croats.

1 (5) Credible reports indicate that some of the 2 indicted war criminals are living in areas of Bosnia
3 and Herzegovina that are under the effective control 4 of Croatia or Serbia-Montenegro. Many of the in-5 dicted war criminals have been sighted living openly 6 and freely in Croatia, the Croat-controlled areas of 7 the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina,
8 Republika Srpska, and Serbia-Montenegro.

9 (6) An estimated 2,000,000 persons have been 10 forced from their homes by the war, many of whom 11 remain displaced and unable to return to their 12 homes, in violation of the Dayton Accords, because 13 their homes are in a jurisdiction controlled by a dif-
14 ferent ethnic group.

15 (7) The fighting in Bosnia has ceased for more 16 than a year, and international efforts are now fo-
17 cused on the economic reconstruction and implemen-
18 tation of the civilian aspects of the Dayton Accords.

19 (8) The International Bank for Reconstruction
20 and Development, the European Bank for Recon-
21 struction and Development, the International Mone-22 tary Fund, and individual donor countries, including 23 the United States, have begun disbursing funds to-24 ward meeting an identified goal of $5,100,000,000
25 for reconstruction of Bosnia.

1 SEC. 3. SENSE OF THE SENATE.

2 (a) It is the sense of the Senate that—

3 (1) reconciliation in Bosnia and Herzegovina
4 cannot be achieved if indicted war criminals remain 5 at large and refugees and displaced persons are un-6 able to return to their homes;

7 (2) reconstruction without reconciliation will 8 not be effective in ensuring stability in the long run 9 because absent individual accountability, victimized 10 communities will assign collective responsibility, thus 11 perpetuating the cycle of hatred; and 12 (3) the Government of the United States should 13 ensure that multilateral and bilateral assistance is 14 provided to parties to the Dayton Agreement only if 15 doing so would promote reconciliation as well as re-16 construction, including the transfer of war criminals

17 to the Tribunal, the return of refugees and displaced 18 persons, and freedom of movement.

19 (b) It is further the sense of the Senate that the Tri-20 bunal, consistent with its mandate, should continue to in-21 vestigate and bring indictments against persons who have 22 violated international humanitarian law.

23 SEC. 4. RESTRICTIONS ON FUNDING.

24 (a) BILATERAL ASSISTANCE.—

25 (1) IN GENERAL.—No assistance may be pro-26 vided under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 or

1 the Arms Export Control Act for any country de-2 scribed in subsection (d).

3 (2) APPLICATION TO PRIOR APPROPRIATIONS.—

4 The prohibition on assistance contained in para-5 graph (1) includes the provision of assistance from 6 funds appropriated prior to the date of enactment of 7 this Act.

8 (b) MULTILATERAL ASSISTANCE.—The Secretary of 9 the Treasury shall instruct the United States executive di-10 rectors of the international financial institutions to work 11 in opposition to, and vote against, any extension by such 12 institutions of any financial or technical assistance or 13 grants of any kind to any country described in subsection 14 (d).

15 (c) EXCEPTIONS.—

16 (1) IN GENERAL.—Subject to paragraph (2), 17 subsections (a) and (b) shall not apply to the provi-18 sion of—

19 (A) humanitarian assistance;

20 (B) democratization assistance; or

21 (C) assistance for physical infrastructure
22 projects involving activities in both a sanctioned 23 country and nonsanctioned contiguous coun-
24 tries, if the nonsanctioned countries are the pri-25 mary beneficiaries.

1 (2) FURTHER LIMITATIONS.—Notwithstanding
2 paragraph (1)—

3 (A) no assistance may be made available 4 under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 or 5 the Arms Export Control Act for a program, 6 project, or activity in any country described in 7 subsection (d) in which an indicted war criminal 8 has any financial or material interest or 9 through any organization in which the indicted 10 individual is affiliated; and 11 (B) no assistance (other than emergency 12 food or medical assistance or demining assist-13 ance) may be made available under the Foreign 14 Assistance Act of 1961 or the Arms Export

15 Control Act to any program, project, or activity 16 in any area in any country described in sub-17 section (d) in which local authorities are not 18 complying with the provisions of Article IX and 19 Annex 4, Article II of the Dayton Agreement 20 relating to war crimes and the Tribunal, or 21 with the provisions of Annex 7 of the Dayton
22 Agreement relating to the rights of refugees 23 and displaced persons to return to their homes 24 of origin.

1 (d) SANCTIONED COUNTRIES.—A country described 2 in this section is a country the authorities of which fail 3 to apprehend and transfer to the Tribunal all persons in 4 territory that is under their effective control who have 5 been indicted by the Tribunal.

6 (e) WAIVER.—

7 (1) AUTHORITY.—The President may waive the 8 application of subsection (a) or subsection (b) with 9 respect to a country if the President determines and 10 certifies to the appropriate committees of Congress 11 within six months after the date of enactment of this 12 Act that a majority of the indicted persons who are 13 within territory that is under the effective control of 14 the country have been arrested and transferred to 15 the Tribunal.

16 (2) PERIOD OF EFFECTIVENESS.—Any waiver
17 made pursuant to this subsection shall be effective 18 for a period of six months.

19 (f) TERMINATION OF SANCTIONS.—The sanctions 20 imposed pursuant to subsection (a) or subsection (b) with 21 respect to a country shall cease to apply only if the Presi-
22 dent determines and certifies to Congress that the authori-23 ties of that country have apprehended and transferred to 24 the Tribunal all persons in territory that is under their 25 effective control who have been indicted by the Tribunal.

1 SEC. 5. DEFINITIONS.

2 As used in this Act:

3 (1) COUNTRY.—The term “country” shall not 4 include the state of Bosnia and Herzegovina, and 5 the provisions of this Act shall be applied separately 6 to its constituent entities of Republika Srpska and 7 the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

8 (2) DAYTON AGREEMENT.—The term “Dayton
 9 Agreement” means the General Framework Agree-
 10 ment for Peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina, together
 11 with annexes relating thereto, done at Dayton, No-12 vember 10 through 16, 1995.

13 (3) DEMOCRATIZATION ASSISTANCE.—The term 14 “democratization assistance” includes electoral as-15 sistance and assistance used in establishing the in-16 stitutions of a democratic and civil society.

17 (4) HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE.—The term
 18 “humanitarian assistance” includes disaster and 19 food assistance and assistance for demining, refu-20 gees, housing, education, health care, and other so-21 cial services.

22 (5) TRIBUNAL.—The term “Tribunal” means 23 the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former 24 Yugoslavia.
