

105TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 966

To provide legal standards and procedures for suppliers of raw materials and component parts for medical devices, and for other purposes.

---

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JUNE 26, 1997

Mr. BREAUX introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation

---

A BILL

To provide legal standards and procedures for suppliers of raw materials and component parts for medical devices, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This title may be cited as the “Biomaterials Access 5       Assurance Act of 1997”.

6       SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7       Congress finds that—

8               (1) each year millions of citizens of the United 9       States depend on the availability of lifesaving or life

1 enhancing medical devices, many of which are per-2 manently implantable within the human body;

3 (2) a continued supply of raw materials and 4 component parts is necessary for the invention, de-5 velopment, improvement, and maintenance of the 6 supply of the devices;

7 (3) most of the medical devices are made with 8 raw materials and component parts that—

9 (A) are not designed or manufactured spe-10 cifically for use in medical devices; and

11 (B) come in contact with internal human 12 tissue;

13 (4) the raw materials and component parts also 14 are used in a variety of nonmedical products;

15 (5) because small quantities of the raw mate-
16 rials and component parts are used for medical de-17 vices, sales of raw materials and component parts 18 for medical devices constitute an extremely small 19 portion of the overall market for the raw materials
20 and medical devices;

21 (6) under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cos-22 metic Act (21 U.S.C. 301 et seq.), manufacturers of 23 medical devices are required to demonstrate that the 24 medical devices are safe and effective, including

1 demonstrating that the products are properly de-
2 signed and have adequate warnings or instructions;

3 (7) notwithstanding the fact that raw materials
4 and component parts suppliers do not design,
5 produce, or test a final medical device, the suppliers
6 have been the subject of actions alleging adequate—

7 (A) design and testing of medical devices
8 manufactured with materials or parts supplied 9 by the suppliers; or

10 (B) warnings related to the use of such 11 medical devices;

12 (8) even though suppliers of raw materials and 13 component parts have very rarely been held liable in 14 such actions, such suppliers have ceased supplying 15 certain raw materials and component parts for use 16 in medical devices because the costs associated with 17 litigation in order to ensure a favorable judgment for 18 the suppliers far exceeds the total potential sales 19 revenues from sales by such suppliers to the medical 20 device industry;

21 (9) unless alternate sources of supply can be 22 found, the unavailability of raw materials and com-
23 ponent parts for medical devices will lead to unavail-24 ability of lifesaving and life-enhancing medical de-25 vices;

1           (10) because other suppliers of the raw mate-
2           rials and component parts in foreign nations are re-3           fusing to sell raw materials or component parts for 4           use in manufacturing certain medical devices in the 5           United States, the prospects for development of new 6           sources of supply for the full range of threatened 7           raw materials and component parts for medical de-8           vices are remote;

9           (11) it is unlikely that the small market for 10          such raw materials and component parts in the 11          United States could support the large investment
12          needed to develop new suppliers of such raw mate-
13          rials and component parts;

14          (12) attempts to develop such new suppliers
15          would raise the cost of medical devices;

16          (13) courts that have considered the duties of 17          the suppliers of the raw materials and component 18          parts have generally found that the suppliers do not 19          have a duty—

20                 (A) to evaluate the safety and efficacy of 21                 the use of a raw material or component part in 22                 a medical device; and

23                 (B) to warn consumers concerning the 24                 safety and effectiveness of a medical device;

1           (14) attempts to impose the duties referred to 2           in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (13) on 3           suppliers of the raw materials and component parts 4           would cause more harm than good by driving the 5           suppliers to cease supplying manufacturers of medi-6           cal devices; and

7           (15) in order to safeguard the availability of a 8           wide variety of lifesaving and life-enhancing medical 9           devices, immediate action is needed—

10           (A) to clarify the permissible bases of li-11           ability for suppliers of raw materials and com-12           ponent parts for medical devices; and 13           (B) to provide expeditious procedures to 14           dispose of unwarranted suits against the suppli-

 15           ers in such manner as to minimize litigation 16           costs.

20 SEC. 4. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS: APPLICABILITY; PRE-
21 EMPTION.

22 (a) GENERAL REQUIREMENTS.—

23 (1) IN GENERAL.—In any civil action covered 24 by this Act, a biomaterials supplier may raise any 25 defense set forth in section 5.

1 (A) PROCEDURES.—Notwithstanding any 2 other provision of law, the Federal or State
3 court in which a civil action covered by this Act
4 is pending shall, in connection with a motion
5 for dismissal or judgment based on the defense 6 described in paragraph (1), use the procedures
7 set forth in section 6.

8 (b) APPLICABILITY.—

9 (1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in para-10 graph (2), notwithstanding any other provision of 11 law, this Act applies to any civil action brought by 12 a claimant, whether in a Federal or State court, 13 against a manufacturer, seller, or biomaterials sup-
14 plier, on the basis of any legal theory, for harm al-15 legedly caused by an implant.

16 (2) EXCLUSION.—A civil action brought by a 17 purchaser of a medical device for use in providing 18 professional services against a manufacturer, seller,
19 or biomaterials supplier for loss or damage to an im-
20 plant or for commercial loss to the purchaser—

21 (A) shall not be considered an action that 22 is subject to this Act; and

23 (B) shall be governed by applicable com-
24 mercial or contract law.

25 (c) SCOPE OF PREEMPTION.—

1           (1) IN GENERAL.—This title supersedes any 2       State law regarding recovery for harm caused by an 3       implant and any rule of procedure applicable to a 4       civil action to recover damages for such harm only 5       to the extent that this Act establishes a rule of law
6       applicable to the recovery of such damages.

7           (2) APPLICABILITY OF OTHER LAWS.—Any 8       issue that arises under this Act and that is not gov-9       erned by a rule of law applicable to the recovery of 10      damages described in paragraph (1) shall be gov-
11      erned by applicable Federal or State law.

12      (d) STATUTORY CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this 13      Act may be construed to create a cause of action or Fed-14      eral court jurisdiction pursuant to section 1331 or 1337
15      of title 28, United States Code, that otherwise would not 16      exist under applicable Federal or State law.

17      SEC. 5. LIABILITY OF BIOMATERIALS SUPPLIERS.

18      (a) IN GENERAL.—

19           (1) EXCLUSION FROM LIABILITY.—Except as 20      provided in paragraph (2), a biomaterials supplier 21      shall not be liable for harm to a claimant caused by 22      an implant.

23           (2) LIABILITY.—A biomaterials supplier that—24           (A) is a manufacturer may be liable for 25      harm to a claimant described in subsection (b);

1 (B) is a seller may be liable for harm to 2 a claimant described in subsection (c);

3 (C) furnishes raw materials that fail to 4 meet applicable contractual requirements or 5 specifications may be liable for a harm to a 6 claimant described in subsection (d);

7 (D) knows, or through reasonable inquiry
8 could have known;

9 (i) of the application to which the raw 10 material is to be put;

11 (ii) of the risks attendant to such use;

12 and

13 (iii) that the buyer or user of the raw 14 material is ignorant of such risks, but 15 failed to warn such buyer or user of such 16 risks, may be liable for harm to a claimant 17 described in subsection (e); and

18 (E) furnishes raw materials that are defec-19 tive may be liable for harm to a claimant as de-20 scribed in subsection (f).

21 (b) LIABILITY MANUFACTURER.—

22 (1) IN GENERAL.—A biomaterials supplier may, 23 to the extent required and permitted by any other 24 applicable law, be liable for harm to a claimant

1 caused by an implant if the biomaterials supplier is 2 the manufacturer of the implant.

3 (2) GROUNDS FOR LIABILITY.—

4 (A) The biomaterials supplier may be con-
5 sidered the manufacturer of the implant that 6 allegedly caused harm to a claimant only if the 7 biomaterials supplier—

8 (i) has registered with the Secretary
9 pursuant to section 510 of the Federal 10 Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C.
11 360) and the regulations issued under such 12 section; and

13 (ii) included the implant on a list of 14 devices filed with the Secretary pursuant 15 to section 510(f) of such Act (21 U.S.C.
16 360(f)) and the regulations issued under 17 such section;

18 (B) is the subject of a declaration issued
19 by the Secretary pursuant to paragraph (3) 20 that states that the supplier, with respect to the 21 implant that allegedly caused harm to the 22 claimant, was required to—

23 (i) register with the Secretary under 24 section 510 of such Act (21 U.S.C. 360),

1 and the regulations issued under such sec-
2 tion, but failed to do so; or

3 (ii) include the implant on a list of de-4 vices filed with the Secretary pursuant to 5 section 510(j) of such Act (21 U.S.C.
6 360(j)) and the regulations issued under 7 such section, but failed to do so; or

8 (C) is related by common ownership or 9 control to a person meeting all the requirements 10 described in subparagraph (A) or (B), if the 11 court deciding a motion to dismiss in accord-12 ance with section 6(c)(3)(B)(i) finds, on the 13 basis of affidavits submitted in accordance with 14 section 6, that it is necessary to impose liability
15 on the biomaterials supplier as a manufacturer 16 because the related manufacturer meeting the 17 requirements of a subparagraph (A) or (B)
18 lacks sufficient financial resources to satisfy 19 any judgment that the court feels it is likely to 20 enter should the claimant prevail.

21 (3) ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES.—

22 (A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary may 23 issue a declaration described in paragraph 24 (2)(B) on the motion of the Secretary or on pe-25 tition by any person, after providing—

- 1 (i) notice to the affected persons; and 2 (ii) an opportunity for an informal
3 hearing.

4 (B) DOCKETING AND FINAL DECISION.—
5 Immediately upon receipt of a petition filed 6 pursuant to this paragraph, the Secretary shall 7 docket the petition. Not later than 180 days 8 after the petition is filed, the Secretary shall 9 issue a final decision on the petition.

10 (C) APPLICABILITY OF STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.—
11 Any applicable statute of limitations
12 shall toll during the period during which a 13 claimant has filed a petition with the Secretary 14 under this paragraph.

15 (c) LIABILITY AS SELLER.—A biomaterials supplier
16 may, to the extent required and permitted by any other 17 applicable law be liable as seller for harm to a claimant 18 caused by an implant if—

19 (1) the biomaterials supplier—

20 (A) held little to the implant that allegedly 21 caused harm to the claimant as a result of pur-22 chasing the implant after—

23 (i) the manufacture of the implant
24 and

1 (ii) the entrance of the implant in the 2 stream of commerce; and

3 (B) subsequently resold the implant; or

4 (2) the biomaterials supplier is related by com-5 mon ownership or control to a person meeting all the 6 requirements described in paragraph (1), if a court
7 deciding a motion to dismiss in accordance with sec-
8 tion 6(c)(3)(B)(ii) finds on the basis of affidavits 9 submitted in accordance with section 6 that is nec-
10 essary to impose liability on the biomaterials sup-11 plier as a seller because the related seller meeting
12 the requirements of paragraph (1) lacks sufficient fi-13 nancial resources to satisfy any judgment that the 14 court feels it is likely to enter should the claimant 15 prevail.

16 (d) LIABILITY FOR VIOLATING CONTRACTUAL RE-
17 QUIREMENTS OR SPECIFICATIONS.—A biomaterials sup-18 plier may, to the extent required and permitted by any 19 other applicable law, be liable for harm to a claimant 20 caused by an implant, if the claimant in an action shows, 21 by a preponderance of the evidence, that—

22 (1) the raw materials or component parts deliv-
23 ered by the biomaterials supplier either—

24 (A) did not constitute the product de-
25 scribed in the contract between the biomaterials

1 supplier and the person who contracted for de-2 livery of the product; or

3 (B) failed to meet any specifications that 4 were—

5 (i) provided to the biomaterials sup-6 plier and not expressly repudiated by the 7 biomaterials supplier prior to acceptance of 8 delivery of the raw materials or component 9 parts;

10 (ii) published by the biomaterials sup-
11 plier;

12 (iii) provided to the manufacturer by
13 the biomaterials supplier;

14 (iv) contained in a master file that 15 was submitted by the biomaterials supplier
16 to the Secretary and that is currently 17 maintained by the biomaterials supplier for 18 purposes of premarket approval of medical 19 devices; or

20 (v) included in the submissions for 21 purposes of premarket approval or review
22 by the Secretary under section 510, 513,
23 515, or 520 of the Federal Food, Drug,
24 and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 360, 360c, 25 360e, or 360j), and received clearance

1 from the Secretary if such specifications
2 were provided by the manufacturer to the 3 biomaterials supplier and were not ex-
4 pressly repudiated by the biomaterials sup-
5 plier prior to the acceptance by the manu-6 facturer of delivery of the raw materials or 7 component parts; and

8 (2) such conduct was an actual and proximate
9 cause of the harm to the claimant.

10 (e) LIABILITY FOR FAILURE TO WARN.—A biomate-11 rials supplier may, to the extent required or permitted by 12 any other applicable law, be liable for harm caused by an 13 implant if the biomaterials supplier—

14 (1) knew, or through reasonable inquiry could 15 have known—

16 (A) of the application to which the raw 17 material was to be put;

18 (B) of the risks attendant to such use;

19 (C) that the buyer or user of the raw ma-20 terial was ignorant of such risks; and

21 (2) failed to warn such buyer or user of such 22 risks.

23 (f) LIABILITY FOR DEFECTIVE MATERIAL.—A bio-24 materials supplier may, to the extent permitted by any 25 other applicable law, be liable for harm caused by an im-

1 plant if the harm was in whole or in part caused by a
 2 defect in the raw material supplied by the biomaterials 3 supplier.

4 SEC. 6. PROCEDURES FOR DISMISSAL OF CIVIL ACTIONS
 5 AGAINST BIOMATERIALS SUPPLIERS.

6 (a) MOTION TO DISMISS.—In any action that is sub-
 7 ject to this Act, a biomaterials supplier who is a defendant
 8 in such action may, at any time during which a motion 9 to dismiss may be filed under an applicable law, move to 10 dismiss the action against it on the grounds that—

11 (1) the defendant is a biomaterials supplier;
 12 and

13 (2)(A) the defendant should not, for the pur-14 poses of—

15 (i) section 5(b), be considered to be a man-16 ufacturer of the implant that is subject to such 17 section; or

18 (ii) section 5(c), be considered to be a sell-19 er of the implant that allegedly caused harm to 20 the claimant;

21 (iii) section 5(e), be found to have failed to 22 warn the buyer or user of the raw material of 23 its known risks;

24 (iv) section 5(f), be found to have supplied 25 defective material; or

1 (B)(i) the claimant has failed to establish pur-
 2 suant to section 5(d), that the supplier furnished 3 raw materials or component parts in violation of 4 contractual requirements or specifications; or

5 (ii) the claimant has failed to comply with the 6 procedural requirements of subsection (b).

7 (b) PROCEEDING ON MOTION TO DISMISS.—The fol-
 8 lowing rules shall apply to any proceeding on a motion 9 to dismiss filed under this section:

10 (1) AFFIDAVITS RELATING TO LISTING AND 11 DECLARATIONS.—

12 (A) IN GENERAL.—The defendant in the 13 action may submit an affidavit demonstrating 14 that defendant has not included the implant on 15 a list, if any, filed with Secretary pursuant to 16 section 510(j) of the Federal Food, Drug and 17 Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 360(j)).

18 (B) RESPONSE TO MOTION TO DISMISS.—
 19 In response to the motion to dismiss, the claim-20 ant may submit an affidavit demonstrating 21 that—

22 (i) the Secretary has, with respect to 23 the defendant and the implant that alleg-
 24 edly caused harm to the claimant, issued a

1 declaration pursuant to section 5(b)(2)(B);

2 or

3 (ii) the defendant who filed the mo-
4 tion to dismiss is a seller of the implant
5 who is liable under section 5(c).

6 (2) EFFECT OF MOTION TO DISMISS ON DIS-
7 COVERY.—

8 (A) IN GENERAL.—If a defendant files a 9 motion to dismiss under paragraph (1) or (2) of 10 subsection (a), no discovery shall be permitted 11 connection to the action that is subject of the 12 motion, other than discovery necessary to deter-
13 mine a motion to dismiss for lack of jurisdic-14 tion, until such time as the court rules on the 15 motion to dismiss in accordance with the affida-16 vits submitted the parties in accordance with 17 section.

18 (B) DISCOVERY.—If a defendant files a
19 motion to dismiss under subsection (a)(2)(B)(i)
20 on the grounds that the biomaterials supplier
21 did not furnish raw materials or component 22 parts in violation of contractual requirements or 23 specifications, the court may permit discovery, 24 as ordered by the court. The discovery conducted pursuant to this subparagraph shall be limited to issues that are directly relevant to—

(i) the pending motion to dismiss; or

(ii) the jurisdiction of the court.

(3) AFFIDAVITS RELATING STATES OF DEFENDANT.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in clauses (i) and (ii) of subparagraph (B), the court shall consider a defendant to be a biomaterials supplier who is not subject to an action for harm to a claimant caused by an implant, other than an action relating to liability for a violation of contractual requirements or specifications described in subsection (d).

(B) RESPONSES TO MOTION TO DISMISS.—

The court shall grant a motion to dismiss any action that asserts liability of the defendant under subsection (b) or (c) of section 5 on the grounds that the defendant is not a manufacturer subject to such section 5(b) of seller subject to section 5(c), unless the claimant submits a valid affidavit that demonstrates that—

(i) with respect to a motion to dismiss contending the defendant is not a manufacturer, the defendant meets the applicable requirements for liability as a manufacturer under section 5(b); or

(ii) with respect to a motion to dismiss contending that the defendant is not a seller, the defendant meets the applicable requirements for liability as a seller under section 5(c).

(4) BASIS OF RULING ON MOTION TO DISMISS.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The court shall rule on a motion to dismiss filed under subsection (a) solely on the basis of the pleadings of the parties made pursuant to this section and any affidavits submitted by the parties pursuant to this section.

(B) MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the court determines that the pleadings and affidavits made by parties pursuant to this section raise genuine issues as concerning material facts with respect to a motion concerning contractual requirements and specifications, the court may deem the motion to dismiss to be a motion for summary judgment made pursuant to subsection (c).

1 (c) SUMMARY JUDGMENT.—

2 (1) IN GENERAL.—

3 (A) BASIS FOR ENTRY OF JUDGMENT.—A
4 biomaterials supplier shall be entitled to entry
5 of judgment without trial if the court finds 6 there is no genuine issue as concerning any ma-
7 terial fact for each applicable element set forth 8 in paragraphs (1) and (2) of section 5(d).

9 (B) ISSUES OF MATERIAL FACT.—With re-
10 spect to a finding made under subparagraph 11 (A), the court shall consider a genuine issue of 12 material fact to exist only if the evidence sub-13 mitted by claimant would be sufficient to allow 14 a reasonable jury to reach a verdict for the 15 claimant if the jury found the evidence to the 16 credible.

17 (2) DISCOVERY MADE PRIOR TO A RULING ON 18 A MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT.—If, under ap-19 plicable rules, the court permits discovery prior to 20 a ruling on a motion for summary judgment made 21 pursuant to this subsection, such discovery shall be 22 limited solely to establishing whether a genuine issue
23 of material fact exists as to the applicable elements
24 set forth in paragraphs (1) and (92) of section 25 5(9)(d).

1           (3) DISCOVERY WITH RESPECT TO A BIOMATE-
 2           RIALS SUPPLIER.—A biomaterials supplier shall be 3           subject to discovery in connection with a motion
 4           seeking dismissal or summary judgment on the basis 5           of the inapplicability of section 5(d) or the failure to 6           establish the applicable elements of section 5(d) sole-7           ly to the extent permitted by the applicable Federal 8           or State rules for discovery against nonparties.

9           (d) STAY PENDING PETITION FOR DECLARATION.—
 10          If a claimant has filed a petition for a declaration pursu-11          ant to section 5(b)(3)(A) with respect to a defendant, and 12          the Secretary has not issued a final decision on the peti-13          tion, the court shall stay all proceedings with respect to 14          that defendant until such time as the Secretary has issued 15          a final decision on the petition.

16          (e) ATTORNEY FEES.—The court shall require the 17          claimant to compensate the biomaterials supplier for a 18          manufacturer appearing in lieu of a supplier pursuant to 19          subsection (f) for attorney fees and costs, if—

20               (1) the claimant named or joined the biomate-21               rials supplier; and

22               (2) the court found the claim against the bio-23               materials supplier was clearly without merit and 24               frivolous at the time the claim was brought.
