RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Senate regarding the situation in Indonesia and East Timor.

Whereas recent political turmoil and economic failure in Indonesia have endangered the people of that country and fomented instability in the region;

Whereas President Suharto has properly responded to this crisis by resigning, after 32 years in office, the presidency of Indonesia in accordance with Indonesia's constitutional processes;

Whereas Indonesia is now embarking on a new era that is ripe for political and economic reform;

Whereas in 1975 Indonesia invaded, and since that time has illegally occupied, East Timor claiming the lives of approximately 200,000 East Timorese;

Whereas Indonesia has systematically committed human rights abuses against the people of East Timor through arbitrary arrests, torture, disappearances, extra-judicial executions, and general political repression;

Whereas 8 United Nations General Assembly and 2 United Nations Security Council resolutions have reaffirmed the right of the people of East Timor to self-determination;

Whereas Bishop Carlos Filipe Ximenes Belo and Jose Ramos-Horta, who were awarded the 1996 Nobel Peace Prize for their courageous contribution to the East Timorese struggle, have called for a United Nations-sponsored referendum on self-determination of the East Timorese;

Whereas President Clinton in a letter dated December 27, 1996, expressed interest in the idea of a United Nations-sponsored referendum on self-determination in East Timor;

Whereas the United States cosponsored a 1997 United Nations Human Rights Commission Resolution calling for Indonesia to comply with the directives of existing United Nations resolutions regarding East Timor; and

Whereas present circumstances provide a unique opportunity for a resolution of the East Timor question: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That it is the sense of the Senate that the
2 President should—

3 (1) encourage the new political leadership in In-
4 donesia to institute genuine democratic and eco-
5 nomic reforms, including the establishment of an
6 independent judiciary, civilian control of the mili-
7 tary, and the release of political prisoners;

8 (2) encourage the new political leadership in In-
9 donesia to promote and protect the human rights
10 and fundamental freedoms of all the people of Indo-
11 nesia and East Timor; and

12 (3) work actively, through the United Nations
13 and with United States allies, to carry out the direc-
14 tives of existing United Nations resolutions on East
15 Timor and to support an internationally supervised
16 referendum on self-determination.

17 SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Senate shall transmit
18 a copy of this resolution to the President.
