

106TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 125

Expressing the sense of the Congress in support of the development and use of firearms personalization technology.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 7, 1999

Mr. BLUMENAUER submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Government Reform, and in addition to the Committee on the Judiciary, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Congress in support of the development and use of firearms personalization technology.

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That it is the sense of the Congress that—

3 (1) all firearms purchased by the Federal Gov-
4 ernment should include firearms personalization
5 technology as soon as such technology is readily
6 available;

7 (2) research and development to further im-
8 prove and perfect firearms personalization tech-

1 nology should be encouraged through greater Fed-
2 eral funding; and

3 (3) within 5 years, all firearms purchases
4 should include firearms personalization technology.

5 For purposes of this resolution, the term “firearms per-
6 sonalization technology” means technology that prevents
7 anyone other than an authorized user of a firearm from 8 firing the firearm.
