1 SEC. 2. POLICY TOWARD ROMANIA.

2	It is the policy of the United States—
3	(1) to promote the development in Romania of
4	a market-based economy and a democratic govern-
5	ment that respects the rights of all of its citizens,
6	regardless of ethnic background;
7	(2) to support the territorial integrity of Roma-
8	nia and to insist that the territorial integrity of Ro-
9	mania be respected by all neighboring countries and
10	by all political movements within and outside Roma-
11	nia; and
12	(3) to support the integration of Romania into
13	pan-European and trans-Atlantic economic and secu-
14	rity institutions.
15	SEC. 3. SENSE OF THE CONGRESS.
16	It is the sense of the Congress that—
17	(1) the United States should support efforts by
18	Romania to integrate into pan-European and trans-
19	Atlantic institutions and should view such integra-
20	tion as an important factor in consolidating demo-
21	cratic government in Romania;
22	(2) Romania is to be commended for its work
23
	to achieve bilateral treaties with the Republic of 24	to achieve bilateral treaties with the Republic of Hungary and Ukraine and the Government of Ro-
2425

- boring Republic of Moldova that recognizes the borders of those two countries;
 - (3) the Government of Romania should accelerate necessary economic reforms, particularly privatization of state-owned enterprises under a fair and transparent process and privatization of the agricultural sector to include privatization of land and of major agri-business enterprises;
 - (4) the Government of Romania should, in a concrete manner, address corrupt and criminal activities at all levels;
 - (5) the United States should undertake to assist Romania to address the costs of disruptions in commerce in southeastern Europe caused by the conflict in neighboring Serbia; and
 - (6) the United States should join other official creditors of Romania in providing Romania with relief from such official debt through rescheduling and, where appropriate, forgiveness.
