8       that the President set an example of high moral 9       standards and conduct himself in a manner that fos-
10      ters respect for the truth; and William Jefferson

1 Clinton, has egregiously failed in this obligation, and 2 through his actions violated the trust of the Amer-
3 ican people, lessened their esteem for the office of 4 President, and dishonored the office which they have 5 entrusted to him;

6 (2)(A) William Jefferson Clinton lied under 7 oath concerning his conduct with a subordinate;

8 (B) William Jefferson Clinton wrongly took 9 steps to delay discovery of the truth;

11 William Jefferson Clinton remains subject to crimi-
12 nal and civil penalties; and

13 (3) William Jefferson Clinton, President of the 14 United States, by his conduct has brought upon 15 himself, and fully deserves, the censure and con-

17 and

18 (4) by his signature on this Joint Resolution,
19 William Jefferson Clinton acknowledges this censure
