1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 The Congress finds as follows:

3 (1) Individuals have a right of privacy with re-4 spect to their protected health information and 5 records.

6 (2) With respect to information about medical 7 care and health status, the traditional right of con-
 8 fidentiality (between a health care provider and a 9 patient) is at risk.

10 (3) An erosion of the right of privacy may re-
 11 duce the willingness of patients to confide in physi-
 12 cians and other practitioners and may inhibit pa-
 13 tients from seeking care.

14 (4) An individual's privacy right means that the 15 individual's consent is needed to disclose his or her 16 protected health information and that the individual 17 has a right of access to that health information.

18 (5) Any disclosure of protected health informa-
 19 tion should be limited to that information or portion

1 of the medical record necessary to fulfill the imme-
2 diate and specific purpose of the disclosure.

3 (6) Health research often depends on access to 4 both identifiable and de-identified patient health in-5 formation and health research is critically important 6 to the health and well-being of all people in the 7 United States.

8 (7) The Supreme Court found in Jaffee v.
9 Redmond (116 S.Ct. 1923 (1996)) that there is an 10 imperative need for confidence and trust between a 11 psychotherapist and a patient and that such trust
12 can only be established by an assurance of confiden-
13 tiality. This assurance serves the public interest by 14 facilitating the provision of appropriate treatment
15 for individuals.

16 (8) Section 264 of the Health Insurance Port-17 ability and Accountability Act of 1996 (42 U.S.C.
18 1320d-2 note) establishes a deadline that Congress 19 enact legislation, before August 21, 1999, to protect 20 the privacy of protected health information.

21 SEC. 3. PURPOSES.

22 The purposes of this Act are as follows:

23 (1) To recognize that there is a right to privacy
24 with respect to health information, including genetic 25 information, and that this right must be protected.

1 (2) To create incentives to turn protected
2 health information into de-identified health informa-
3 tion, where appropriate.

4 (3) To designate an Office of Health Informa-
5 tion Privacy within the Department of Health and 6 Human Services to protect that right of privacy.

7 (4) To provide individuals with—

8 (A) access to health information of which 9 they are the subject; and

10 (B) the opportunity to challenge the accu-
11 racy and completeness of such information by 12 being able to file supplements to such informa-
13 tion.

14 (5) To provide individuals with the right to 15 limit the use and disclosure of protected health in-16 formation.

17 (6) To establish strong and effective mecha-
18 nisms to protect against the unauthorized and inap-
19 propriate use of protected health information.

20 (7) To invoke the sweep of congressional pow-
21 ers, including the power to enforce the 14th amend-
22 ment, to regulate commerce, and to abrogate the im-23 munity of the States under the 11th amendment, in 24 order to address violations of the rights of individ-25 uals to privacy, to provide individuals with access to

1 their health information, and to prevent unauthor-
 2 ized use of protected health information that is ge-
 3 netic information.

13 cacy agency established under part C of title I of the De-
14 velopmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act
15 (42 U.S.C. 6041 et seq.) or under the Protection and Ad-

5 made cannot reasonably be accomplished without 6 protected health information;

7 (2) the purpose for which the disclosure is to be 8 made is of sufficient importance to warrant the ef-

4 the purpose for which the records were obtained; 5 and

6 (4) shall remove or destroy the information that 7 allows subjects of protected health information to be

9 destruction can be accomplished, consistent with the 10 purpose of the health oversight activity.

11 (c) USE OF PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION IN 12 JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS.—

13 (1) IN GENERAL.— The disclosure and use of 14 protected health information in any judicial, admin-

17 be undertaken in such a manner as to preserve the 18 confidentiality and privacy of individuals who are the 19 subject of the information, unless disclosure is re-
20 quired by the nature of the proceedings.

21 (2) LIMITING DISCLOSURE.—Whenever disclo-
22 sure of the identity of the subject of protected health
23 information is required by the nature of the proceed-

25 such individual, the agency shall request that the

1 presiding judicial or administrative officer enter an 2 order limiting the disclosure of the identity of the 3 subject to the extent possible, including the redact-

14 (b) REQUIREMENTS FOR COURT ORDERS FOR AC-
15 CESS TO PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION.—A court
16 order for the disclosure of protected health information 17 under subsection (a) may be issued by any court that is 18 a court of competent jurisdiction and shall issue only if 19 the investigative or law enforcement officer submits a writ-
20 ten application upon oath or equivalent affirmation dem-21 onstrating that there is probable cause to believe that—

22 (1) the protected health information sought is 23 relevant and material to an ongoing criminal inves-
24 tigation, except in the case of a State government
25 authority, such a court order shall not issue if pro-
26 hibited by the law of such State;

1 (2) the investigative or evidentiary needs of the 2 investigative or law enforcement officer cannot rea-

7 to whom the information pertains.

8 (c) MOTIONS TO QUASH OR MODIFY.—A court
9 issuing an order pursuant to this section, on a motion
10 made promptly by the health care provider, health re-

12 health or life insurer, school, university, a person acting 13 as the agent of any such person, or a person who receives 14 protected health information pursuant to section 204, may

20 (1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in para-
21 graph (2), no order for the disclosure of protected 22 health information about an individual may be

1 forded an opportunity to oppose the issuance of the 2 order.

3 (2) NOTICE NOT REQUIRED.—An order for the 4 disclosure of protected health information about an 5 individual may be issued without prior notice to the 6 individual if the court finds that notice would be im-7 practical because—

8 (A) the name and address of the individual 9 are unknown; or

10 (B) notice would risk destruction or un-
11 availability of the evidence.

12 (e) CONDITIONS.—Upon the granting of an order for 13 disclosure of protected health information under this sec-
14 tion, the court shall impose appropriate safeguards to en-15 sure the confidentiality of such information and to protect 16 against unauthorized or improper use or disclosure.

17 (f) LIMITATION ON USE AND DISCLOSURE FOR 18 OTHER LAW ENFORCEMENT INQUIRIES.—Protected
19 health information about an individual that is disclosed 20 under this section may not be used in, or disclosed to any 21 individual expressly authorizes such disclosure.

22 (c) DIRECTORY OR NEXT-OF-KIN INFORMATION.—A
23 disclosure may not be made under this section if the dis-

18 the grant of authority.

19 (c) NO COURT DECLARATION.—If a physician or 20 other health care provider determines that an individual, 21 who has not been declared to be legally incompetent, suf-

23 from acting knowingly or effectively on the individual’s
24 own behalf, the right of the individual to authorize disclo-
