To provide for continued compensation for Federal employees when funds are not otherwise available due to a lapse in appropriations.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 18, 1999

Mr. WYNN introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Government Reform, and in addition to the Committee on Appropriations, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

- To provide for continued compensation for Federal employees when funds are not otherwise available due to a lapse in appropriations.
  - 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
  - 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. CONTINUED COMPENSATION.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the right of a Government employee to be compensated for any period, at such employee's regular rate of compensation, shall not be abrogated, diminished, or otherwise affected officer or employee of the United States

Government or of the District of Columbia government 1 2 who is furloughed for any period as a result of a lapse in appropriations. For any period of lapsed appropria-3 tions, there are appropriated, out of any moneys in the 4 5 Treasury not otherwise appropriated, such sums as may be necessary to provide compensation, at the regular rate 6 7 of compensation, for civilian officers and employees of the 8 Government of the United States and of the government 9 of the District of Columbia, respectively (including any 10 such officers or employees who have been furloughed due to a lapse in appropriations). 11

12 (b) CHARGE TO APPLICABLE ACCOUNTS.—Expendi-13 tures made pursuant to this Act shall be charged to the 14 applicable appropriation, fund, or authorization whenever 15 a bill or joint resolution in which such applicable appro-16 priation, fund, or authorization is contained is enacted 17 into law.

18 (c) FURLOUGHED EMPLOYEES.—Notwithstanding 19 section 1341 of title 31, United States Code, or any other 20 provision of law, any officer or employee furloughed as de-21 scribed in subsection (a) shall be compensated, at the reg-22 ular rate of compensation, for the period during which 23 such officer or employee is so furloughed. (d) EFFECTIVE DATE.—This Act shall apply with respect to any fiscal year beginning after the date of the enactment of this Act.
