106TH CONGRESS 1ST SESSION

H. R. 2083

To provide for the appointment by the Attorney General of a special counsel when investigation or prosecution of a person by an office or official of the Department of Justice may result in a personal, financial, or political conflict of interest.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

June 9, 1999

Mr. Gekas introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To provide for the appointment by the Attorney General of a special counsel when investigation or prosecution of a person by an office or official of the Department of Justice may result in a personal, financial, or political conflict of interest.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.
- 4 This Act may be cited as the "Special Counsel Act
- 5 of 1999".

1 SEC. 2. APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COUNSEL.

2	(a) Appointment.—Upon a determination of the At-
3	torney General that—
4	(1) the investigation or prosecution of any per-
5	son for an alleged violation of Federal criminal law
6	by any office or official of the Department of Justice
7	may result in a personal, financial, or political con-
8	flict of interest, and
9	(2) it is in the public interest for the Attorney
10	General to resolve any such conflict of interest by
11	appointing a special counsel to head a temporary Of-
12	fice of Special Counsel within the Department of
13	Justice,
14	the Attorney General may appoint a counsel to head such
15	Office.
16	(b) REGULATIONS.—The Attorney General shall
17	issue (and may amend from time to time thereafter) regu-
18	lations to—
19	(1) govern the conduct of any investigation or
20	prosecution by a special counsel appointed by the
21	Attorney General under subsection (a); and
22	(2) to provide that the special counsel may be
23	removed from office only by the personal action of
24	the Attorney General and only for good cause.

- 1 The first regulations under this subsection shall be issued
- 2 and made effective no later than 90 days from the date

3 of enactment of this Act.
