

106TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 4114

To require that United States assistance may be provided to the government of a foreign country only if a treaty of extradition between that country and the United States is in force, or the government of that country and the United States have entered into negotiations to conclude a treaty of extradition.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 29, 2000

Mr. BRADY of Texas (for himself and Mr. MILLER of Florida) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on International Relations

A BILL

To require that United States assistance may be provided to the government of a foreign country only if a treaty of extradition between that country and the United States is in force, or the government of that country and the United States have entered into negotiations to conclude a treaty of extradition.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. REQUIREMENTS RELATING TO PROVISION OF
4 UNITED STATES ASSISTANCE.

5 (a) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding any other provi-
6 sion of law, United States assistance may be provided to

1 the government of a foreign country only if a treaty of
2 extradition between such country and the United States
3 is in force, or the government of such country and the
4 United States have entered into negotiations to conclude
5 such a treaty.

6 (b) UNITED STATES ASSISTANCE.—The term
7 “United States assistance” means assistance of any kind
8 (other than humanitarian assistance) which is provided by 9 grant, sale, loan, lease, credit, guaranty, or insurance, or 10 by any other means, by any agency or instrumentality of 11 the United States Government.
