

106TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 152

Recognizing the commitment and dedication of members of America's humanitarian relief nongovernmental organizations and private volunteer organizations for their rapid and courageous response to recent disasters in Central America and Kosova, and of the local nongovernmental organizations and individuals in these regions with whom they work.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

APRIL 27, 1999

Mr. PORTER (for himself, Mr. GILMAN, Mr. WOLF, and Mr. HALL of Ohio) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on International Relations

RESOLUTION

Recognizing the commitment and dedication of members of America's humanitarian relief nongovernmental organizations and private volunteer organizations for their rapid and courageous response to recent disasters in Central America and Kosova, and of the local nongovernmental organizations and individuals in these regions with whom they work.

- 1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—
- 2 (1) recognizes and commends the commitment
- 3 and dedication of those individuals serving in and
- 4 working with nongovernmental organizations and

1 private volunteer organizations of the United States
2 in providing humanitarian relief to hundreds of 3 thousands of individuals displaced and injured by 4 the natural disasters in Central America and by the
5 Kosova conflict;

6 (2) urges all Americans to join in recognizing
7 the relief workers and organizations for their com-
8 mitment and dedication; and

9 (3) calls upon the people of the United States—

10 (A) to reflect upon the commitment and
11 dedication of the relief workers and organiza-
12 tions for their continued work in responding to 13 tragedies around the world with great care,
14 skill, and speed; and

15 (B) to encourage awareness of the con-
16 tributions that the relief workers and organiza-
17 tions have made to help ease human suffering.
