

106TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 1514

To provide that countries receiving foreign assistance be conducive to United States business.

---

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

AUGUST 5, 1999

Mr. CAMPBELL introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

A BILL

To provide that countries receiving foreign assistance be conducive to United States business.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “International Anti-Cor-
5       ruption Act of 1999”.

6       SEC. 2. LIMITATIONS ON FOREIGN ASSISTANCE.

7       (a) REPORT AND CERTIFICATION.—

8               (1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than March 1 of 9       each year, the President shall submit to the appro-
10      priate committees a certification described in paragraph (2) and a report for each country that received foreign assistance under part I of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 during the fiscal year. The report shall describe the extent to which each such country is making progress with respect to the following economic indicators:

(A) Implementation of comprehensive economic reform, based on market principles, private ownership, equitable treatment of foreign private investment, adoption of a legal and policy framework necessary for such reform, protection of intellectual property rights, and respect for contracts.

(B) Elimination of corrupt trade practices by private persons and government officials.

(C) Moving toward integration into the world economy.

(2) CERTIFICATION.—The certification described in this paragraph means a certification as to whether, based on the economic indicators described in subparagraphs (A) through (C) of paragraph (1), each country is—

(A) conducive to United States business;

(B) not conducive to United States business; or

1 (C) hostile to United States business.

2 (b) LIMITATIONS ON ASSISTANCE.—

3 (1) COUNTRIES HOSTILE TO UNITED STATES
4 BUSINESS.—

5 (A) GENERAL LIMITATION.—Beginning on
6 the date the certification described in sub-
7 section (a) is submitted—

8 (i) none of the funds made available
9 for assistance under part I of the Foreign
10 Assistance Act of 1961 (including unobli-
11 gated balances of prior appropriations)
12 may be made available for the government
13 of a country that is certified as hostile to 14 United States business pursuant to such 15 subsection (a); and

16 (ii) the Secretary of the Treasury
17 shall instruct the United States Executive
18 Director of each multilateral development
19 bank to vote against any loan or other uti-
20 lization of the funds of such institution to
21 or by any country with respect to which a
22 certification described in clause (i) has 23 been made.

24 (B) DURATION OF LIMITATIONS.—Except
25 as provided in subsection (c), the limitations described in clauses (i) and (ii) of subparagraph (A) shall apply with respect to a country that is certified as hostile to United States business pursuant to subsection (a) until the President certifies to the appropriate committees that the country is making significant progress in implementing the economic indicators described in subsection (a)(1) and is no longer hostile to United States business.

(2) COUNTRIES NOT CONDUCIVE TO UNITED STATES BUSINESS.—

(A) PROBATIONARY PERIOD.—A country that is certified as not conducive to United States business pursuant to subsection (a), shall be considered to be on probation beginning on the date of such certification.

(B) REQUIRED IMPROVEMENT.—Unless the President certifies to the appropriate committees that the country is making significant progress in implementing the economic indicators described in subsection (a) and is committed to being conducive to United States business, beginning on the first day of the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which a country

1 is certified as not conducive to United States
2 business pursuant to subsection (a)(2)—

3 (i) none of the funds made available
4 for assistance under part I of the Foreign
5 Assistance Act of 1961 (including unobli-
6 gated balances of prior appropriations)
7 may be made available for the government
8 of such country; and

9 (ii) the Secretary of the Treasury
10 shall instruct the United States Executive
11 Director of each multilateral development
12 bank to vote against any loan or other uti-
13 lization of the funds of such institution to
14 or by any country with respect to which a
15 certification described in subparagraph (A)
16 has been made.

17 (C) DURATION OF LIMITATIONS.—Except
18 as provided in subsection (c), the limitations de-
19 scribed in clauses (i) and (ii) of subparagraph
20 (B) shall apply with respect to a country that
21 is certified as not conducive to United States
22 business pursuant to subsection (a) until the 23 President certifies to the appropriate commit-
24 tees that the country is making significant
25 progress in implementing the economic indica-

1           tors described in subsection (a)(1) and is con-
 2           ducive to United States business.

3       (c) EXCEPTIONS.—

4           (1) NATIONAL SECURITY INTEREST.—Sub-
 5       section (b) shall not apply with respect to a country
 6       described in subsection (b) (1) or (2) if the Presi-
 7       dent determines with respect to such country that
 8       making such funds available is important to the na-
 9       tional security interest of the United States. Any
 10      such determination shall cease to be effective 6
 11      months after being made unless the President deter-
 12      mines that its continuation is important to the na-
 13      tional security interest of the United States.

14      (2) OTHER EXCEPTIONS.—Subsection (b) shall 15      not apply with respect to—

16           (A) assistance to meet urgent humani-
 17           tarian needs (including providing food, medi-
 18           cine, disaster, and refugee relief);

19           (B) democratic political reform and rule of 20           law activities;

21           (C) the creation of private sector and non-
 22           governmental organizations that are inde-
 23           pendent of government control; and

24           (D) the development of a free market eco-
 25           nomic system.

1 SEC. 3. TOLL-FREE NUMBER.

2       The Secretary of Commerce shall make available a
3 toll-free telephone number for reporting by members of the 4 public and United States businesses on the progress that
5 countries receiving foreign assistance are making in imple-
6 menting the economic indicators described in section
7 2(a)(1). The information obtained from the toll-free tele-
8 phone reporting shall be included in the report required
9 by section 2(a).

10 SEC. 4. DEFINITIONS.

11       In this Act:

12           (1) APPROPRIATE COMMITTEES.—The term
13 “appropriate committees” means the Committee on
14 International Relations of the House of Representa-
15 tives and the Committee on Foreign Relations of the 16 Senate.

17           (2) MULTILATERAL DEVELOPMENT BANK.—
18 The term “multilateral development bank” means
19 the International Bank for Reconstruction and De-
20 velopment, the International Development Associa-
21 tion, and the European Bank for Reconstruction and 22 Development.
