S. 1602

To require the closure of Naval Station Roosevelt Roads, Puerto Rico upon termination of Armed Forces use of training ranges on the island of Vieques, Puerto Rico, involving live munitions impact.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

September 21, 1999

Mr. Inhofe introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Armed Services

A BILL

- To require the closure of Naval Station Roosevelt Roads, Puerto Rico upon termination of Armed Forces use of training ranges on the island of Vieques, Puerto Rico, involving live munitions impact.
 - 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
 - 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
 - 3 SECTION 1. CLOSURE OF NAVAL STATION ROOSEVELT
- 4 ROADS, PUERTO RICO.
- 5 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-
- 6 ings:

- (1) The principal mission of Naval Station Roosevelt Roads, Puerto Rico, is to support the Atlantic Fleet Weapons Training Facility.
 - (2) The key component of the Atlantic Fleet Weapons Training Facility is the set of training ranges on the island of Vieques, including the live impact area on the eastern tip of the island.
 - (3) The other missions of Naval Station Roosevelt Roads, such as the performance of counterdrug operations by P–3 aircraft and the missions of the Special Operations Command, South, can be performed at other military facilities outside of Puerto Rico.
 - (4) Military training operations, including the expenditure of live munitions, take place at a number of facilities in the continental United States and in Allied nations.
 - (5) If access to training ranges such as those on the island of Vieques are terminated, the value of the Puerto Rican Operating Area and the requirements for maintaining Naval Station Roosevelt Roads are greatly diminished.
 - (6) The Department of Defense must leverage its resources in the most cost-effective manner to en-

- sure that it maximizes its ability to train its military forces.
- 3 (7) Maintaining Naval Station Roosevelt Roads 4 without access to training ranges, including those on 5 the island of Vieques, would not be the most effi-6 cient use of scarce readiness resources.
- When the training of the Armed Forces, the Secretary of Dethe island of Vieques for live munitions impact involved in the training of the Armed Forces, the Secretary of Defense shall transfer the missions, personnel, and assets of Naval Station Roosevelt Roads, Puerto Rico, to the continental United States and close Naval Station Roosevelt
 Roads. The Secretary may, however, transfer any counterdrug mission, together with associated personnel and assets, to a forward operation location outside the continental United States that is also outside the Common-
