RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Senate regarding conditions in Laos.

Whereas Laos was devastated by civil war from 1955 to 1974;

Whereas the people of Laos have lived under the authoritarian, one-party government of the Lao People's Revolutionary Party since the overthrow of the existing Royal Lao government in 1975;

Whereas the communist government of the Lao People's Democratic Republic sharply curtails basic human rights, including freedom of speech, assembly, association, and religion;

Whereas political dissent is not allowed in Laos and those who express their political will are severely punished;

Whereas the Lao constitution protects freedom of religion but the Government of Laos in practice restricts this right;

Whereas Laos is not a signatory of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights or the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights;

Whereas Laos is a party to international human rights treaties, including the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination and the Convention on the Political Rights of Women;

Whereas the 1999 State Department Report on Human Rights Practices in Laos finds that “societal discrimination against women and minorities persist”;

Whereas the State Department’s report also finds that the Lao government “discriminates in its treatment of prisoners” and uses “degrading treatment, solitary confinement, and incommunicado detention against perceived problem prisoners”;

Whereas two American citizens, Houa Ly and Michael Vang, were last seen on the border between Laos and Thailand in April 1999 and may be in Laos; and

Whereas many Americans of Hmong and Lao descent are deeply troubled by the conditions in Laos: Now, therefore, be it

- 1 Resolved, That the Senate calls on the Government
- 2 of the Lao People’s Democratic Republic to—

1 (1) respect the basic human rights of all of its
2 citizens, including freedom of speech, assembly, as-
3 sociation, and religion;

4 (2) ratify the Universal Declaration of Human
5 Rights and the International Covenant on Civil and 6 Political Rights;

7 (3) fulfill its obligations under the international
8 human rights treaties to which it is a party, includ-
9 ing the International Convention on the Elimination
10 of All Forms of Racial Discrimination and the Con-
11 vention on the Political Rights of Women;

12 (4) take demonstrable steps to ensure that
13 Hmong and other ethnic minorities who have been 14 returned to Laos from Thailand and elsewhere in 15 Southeast Asia are—

16 (A) accepted into Lao society on an equal
17 par with other Lao citizens;

18 (B) allowed to practice freely their ethnic 19 and religious traditions and to preserve their 20 language and culture without threat of fear or 21 intimidation; and

22 (C) afforded the same educational, eco-
23 nomic, and professional opportunities as other
24 residents of Laos;

1 (5) allow international humanitarian organiza-
2 tions, including the International Red Cross, to gain
3 unrestricted access to areas in which Hmong and
4 other ethnic minorities have been resettled;

5 (6) allow independent monitoring of prison con-
6 ditions;

7 (7) release from prison those who have been ar-
8 bitrarily arrested on the basis of their political or re-
9 ligious beliefs; and

10 (8) cooperate fully with the United States Gov-
11 ernment in the ongoing investigation into the where-
12 abouts of Houa Ly and Michael Vang, two United
13 States citizens who were last seen near the border
14 between Laos and Thailand in April 1999.
