

107TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 234

Expressing the sense of Congress relating to the increased importance of the United States steel industry since the attacks on the United States on September 11, 2001.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

SEPTEMBER 21, 2001

Mrs. JONES of Ohio submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Energy and Commerce, and in addition to the Committee on Armed Services, for a period of time to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of Congress relating to the increased importance of the United States steel industry since the attacks on the United States on September 11, 2001.

Whereas on September 11, 2001, acts of treacherous violence were committed against the United States and its citizens;

Whereas the United States steel industry has been weakened by the availability of illegal increased quantities of steel being imported into the United States by foreign businesses; and

Whereas in this time of crisis it is important that the United States does not rely on steel imported from foreign countries: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That, in light of the attacks on the United
3 States on September 11, 2001, it is the sense of Congress
4 that—

5 (1) the United States steel industry is vital to
6 the national security interests of the United States;
7 and

8 (2) the United States should place a priority on
9 using steel produced in the United States in order
10 to help rebuild our Nation and support any future
11 military efforts in response to such attacks.
