

107TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 283

Expressing the sense of Congress that Parker Dykes deserves to be recognized for his years of commitment to football and his community and is extremely worthy of the award of National Junior College Coach of the Year.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

DECEMBER 6, 2001

Mr. SHOWS submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Education and the Workforce

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of Congress that Parker Dykes deserves to be recognized for his years of commitment to football and his community and is extremely worthy of the award of National Junior College Coach of the Year.

Whereas Parker Dykes was named National Junior College Coach of the Year;

Whereas Parker Dykes has been actively involved in football for more than 36 years;

Whereas Parker Dykes has been a strong role model for youth in both his personal and professional life, as indicated by his selection for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes of Mississippi Influence Award;

Whereas under Parker Dykes's leadership the Jones Junior College football team finished the 2001 season with 10 wins and 1 loss and ranked 6th in the National Junior College Athletic Association Poll; and

Whereas under Parker Dykes's leadership the Jones Junior College football team won the Mississippi Junior/Community College Association State Championship football game by defeating Mississippi Delta Community College by a score of 22 to 6 on November 17, 2001: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
 2 concurring), That it is the sense of Congress that Parker
 3 Dykes deserves to be recognized for his years of commit-
 4 ment to football and his community and is extremely wor-
 5 thy of the award of National Junior College Coach of the 6 Year.

○