107TH CONGRESS 2D SESSION

H. RES. 441

Supporting responsible fatherhood and encouraging greater involvement of fathers in the lives of their children, especially on Father's Day.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

June 11, 2002

Mr. Sullivan (for himself, Mr. Pitts, Mr. McIntyre, Mr. Turner, Mr. Souder, and Mr. Ryun of Kansas) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Education and the Workforce

RESOLUTION

- Supporting responsible fatherhood and encouraging greater involvement of fathers in the lives of their children, especially on Father's Day.
- Whereas children with fathers at home tend to do better in school, to be less prone to depression, and to have more successful relationships;
- Whereas boys and girls alike demonstrate greater self-control and ability to take initiative when fathers are actively involved in their upbringing;
- Whereas promoting responsible fatherhood can help increase the chances that children will grow up with two caring parents;
- Whereas a broad array of America's leading family and childdevelopment experts agree that it is in the best interests

- of children, and the Nation as a whole, to encourage more two-parent, father-involved families;
- Whereas in a study of fathers' interaction with their children in intact two-parent families, nearly 90 percent of the fathers surveyed said that being a father is the most fulfilling role a man can have;
- Whereas according to a 1996 Gallup poll, 90.3 percent of Americans agree that fathers make a unique contribution to their children's lives;
- Whereas a study of first-grade boys and their married parents found that fathers who participated more in childcare had sons who were more empathetic than sons whose fathers did not participate often in childcare;
- Whereas married fathers are more likely to have a close, enduring relationship with their children than unmarried fathers;
- Whereas the promotion of responsible fatherhood is a bipartisan issue; and
- Whereas Father's Day is the third Sunday in June: Now, therefore, be it
 - 1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—
- 2 (1) urges men to understand the level of re-
- 3 sponsibility fathering a child requires, especially in
- 4 the encouragement of the academic, moral, and spir-
- 5 itual development of children;
- 6 (2) recognizes the need to encourage active in-
- 7 volvement of fathers in the rearing and development
- 8 of their children;

- (3) encourages each father to devote time, energy, and resources to his children, recognizing that children need not only material support, but even more importantly, a secure and nurturing family environment;
 - (4) commends the millions of fathers who serve as wonderful, caring parents for their children, while also recognizing that there are children who will have no one with whom to celebrate on Father's Day;
 - (5) urges mothers to encourage fathers to play an active role in child-rearing;
 - (6) calls on fathers across the Nation to use Father's Day to reconnect and rededicate themselves to their children's lives, to spend Father's Day with their children, and to express their love and support for their children; and
 - (7) urges American institutions, and government entities at every level, to promote public policies that encourage and support the efforts of, and remove barriers to, responsible fatherhood.
