

107TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 413

To amend part F of title X of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 to improve and refocus civic education, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

FEBRUARY 28, 2001

Mr. COCHRAN (for himself and Mr. DODD) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions

A BILL

To amend part F of title X of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 to improve and refocus civic education, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Education for Democ-
5 racy Act”.

6 SEC. 2. CIVIC EDUCATION.

7 Part F of title X of the Elementary and Secondary 8 Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 8141 et seq.) is amend-
9 ed to read as follows:

1 “PART F—CIVIC EDUCATION

2 “SEC. 10601. SHORT TITLE.

3 “‘This part may be cited as the ‘Education for De-
4 mocracy Act’.

5 “SEC. 10602. FINDINGS.

6 “‘The Congress finds that—

7 “(1) college freshmen surveyed in 1999 by the 8 Higher Education Research Institute at the Univer-
9 sity of California at Los Angeles demonstrated high-10 er levels of disengagement, both academically and 11 politically, than any previous entering class of stu-
12 dents;

13 “(2) college freshmen in 1999 demonstrated the 14 lowest levels of political interest in the 20-year his-15 tory of surveys conducted by the Higher Education
16 Research Institute at the University of California at 17 Los Angeles;

18 “(3) United States secondary school students
19 expressed relatively low levels of interest in politics
20 and economics in a 1999 Harris survey;

21 “(4) the 32nd Annual Phi Delta Kappa/Gallup
22 Poll of 2000 indicated that preparing students to be-23 come responsible citizens was one of the most impor-
24 tant purposes of public schools;

25 “(5) Americans surveyed by the Organization of 26 Economic Cooperation and Development indicated

1 that only 59 percent had confidence that schools
2 have a major effect on the development of good citi-
3 zenship;

4 “(6) teachers too often do not have sufficient 5 expertise in the subjects that they teach, and half of 6 all secondary school history students in America are 7 being taught by teachers with neither a major nor 8 a minor in history;

9 “(7) secondary school students correctly an-10 swered less than half of the questions on a national 11 test of economic knowledge in a 1999 Harris survey;

12 “(8) the 1998 National Assessment of Edu-
13 cational Progress indicated that students have only 14 superficial knowledge of, and lacked a depth of un-15 derstanding regarding, civics;

16 “(9) civic and economic education are impor-
17 tant not only to developing citizenship competencies
18 in the United States but also are critical to sup-19 porting political stability and economic health in 20 other democracies, particularly emerging democratic 21 market economies;

22 “(10) international education exchange pro-23 grams in civic and economic education have been 24 shown to enhance both educational reform efforts in

1 other democracies and educational quality in United 2 States classrooms;

3 “(11) more than three quarters of Americans
4 surveyed by the National Constitution Center in 5 1997 admitted that they knew only some or very lit-6 tle about the Constitution of the United States; and 7 “(12) the Constitution of the United States is 8 too often viewed within the context of history and 9 not as a living document that shapes current events.

10 “SEC. 10603. PURPOSE.

11 “It is the purpose of this part—

12 “(1) to improve the quality of civics and gov-13 ernment education by educating students about the 14 history and principles of the Constitution of the 15 United States, including the Bill of Rights;

16 “(2) to foster civic competence and responsi-
17 bility; and

18 “(3) to improve the quality of civic education 19 and economic education through cooperative civic 20 education and economic education exchange pro-
21 grams with other democratic nations.

22 “SEC. 10604. GENERAL AUTHORITY.

23 “(a) GRANTS AND CONTRACTS.—

24 “(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary is authorized 25 to award grants to or enter into contracts with—

1 “(A) the Center for Civic Education to 2 carry out civic education activities under sec-

3 “(B) shall enhance student attainment of
4 challenging content standards in civics and gov-
5 ernment; and

6 “(C) shall provide—

7 “(i) a course of instruction on the 8 basic principles of our Nation’s constitu-
9 tional democracy and the history of the 10 Constitution of the United States and the 11 Bill of Rights;

12 “(ii) at the request of a participating
13 school, school and community simulated
14 congressional hearings following the course
15 of study;

16 “(iii) an annual national competition
17 of simulated congressional hearings for 18 secondary school students who wish to par-
19 ticipate in such a program;

20 “(iv) advanced training of teachers
21 about the Constitution of the United 22 States and the political system the United 23 States created;

24 “(v) materials and methods of instruc-
25 tion, including teacher training, that utilize

1 the latest advancements in educational 2 technology; and

3 “(vi) civic education materials and

16 “(b) PROJECT CITIZEN.—

17 “(1) IN GENERAL.—The Center for Civic Edu-
18 cation shall use funds awarded under section
19 10604(a)(1)(A) to carry out The Project Citizen
20 program in accordance with this subsection.

21 “(2) EDUCATIONAL ACTIVITIES.—The Project
22 Citizen program—

23 “(A) shall continue and expand the edu-
24 cational activities of the ‘We the People . . .

1 Project Citizen’ program administered by the 2 Center for Civic Education;

3 “(B) shall enhance student attainment of
4 challenging content standards in civics and gov-
5 ernment; and

6 “(C) shall provide—

7 “(i) a course of instruction at the 8 middle school level on the roles of State
9 and local governments in the Federal sys-
10 tem established by the Constitution of the 11 United States;

12 “(ii) optional school and community
13 simulated State legislative hearings;

14 “(iii) an annual national showcase or
