108TH CONGRESS 2D SESSION

H.R.3703

To protect the civil rights of victims of gender-motivated violence and to promote public safety, health, and regulate activities affecting interstate commerce by creating employer liability for negligent conduct that results in an individual's committing a gender-motivated crime of violence against another individual on premises controlled by the employer.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

January 20, 2004

Mrs. Maloney introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Education and the Workforce, and in addition to the Committee on the Judiciary, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To protect the civil rights of victims of gender-motivated violence and to promote public safety, health, and regulate activities affecting interstate commerce by creating employer liability for negligent conduct that results in an individual's committing a gender-motivated crime of violence against another individual on premises controlled by the employer.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. NEGLIGENTLY ALLOWING GENDER-MOTIVATED 2 VIOLENCE. 3 An employer— 4 (1) whose business is in or affects interstate or 5 foreign commerce; and 6 (2) whose negligent conduct results in a per-7 son's (including a person who acts under color of 8 statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, or usage of 9 any State) committing a crime of violence motivated 10 by gender against another person on premises under 11 the control of the employer; shall be liable to the party injured, in an action for the 12 13 recovery of compensatory and punitive damages, injunctive and declaratory relief, and such other relief as a court may deem appropriate. 15 SEC. 2. DEFINITIONS. 17 As used in this Act— 18 (1) the term "crime of violence motivated by 19 gender" means a crime of violence committed be-20 cause of gender or on the basis of gender; and 21 (2) the term "crime of violence"— 22 (A) means an act or series of acts that 23 would constitute a crime, for which imprisonment of more than one year may be imposed, against the person of another if that crime is

- 1 a crime of violence as defined in section 16 of 2 title 18, United States Code; and
- 3 (B) includes any conduct that would con-4 stitute a crime described in subparagraph (A) 5 but for the relationship between the person en-6 gaging in that conduct and the individual 7 against whom such conduct is directed.

8 SEC. 3. LIMITATION AND PROCEDURE.

- 9 (a) Limitation.—Nothing in this Act entitles a per-
- 10 son to a cause of action under section 1 for random acts
- 11 of violence unrelated to gender or for acts that cannot be
- 12 demonstrated, by a preponderance of the evidence, to be
- 13 motivated by gender.
- 14 (b) No Prior Criminal Action.—Nothing in this
- 15 section requires a prior criminal complaint, prosecution,
- 16 or conviction to establish the elements of a cause of action
- 17 under section 1.
- 18 (c) Concurrent Jurisdiction.—The Federal and
- 19 State courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction over actions
- 20 brought pursuant to this Act.
- 21 SEC. 4. MATERIALS TO ASSIST EMPLOYERS.
- The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission
- 23 shall create and provide materials to employers regarding

- 1 personnel policies and safety standards to assist employers
- 2 in avoiding liability under this Act.
