IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Ms. PRYCE of Ohio (for herself and Mrs. MALONEY) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To combat unlawful commercial sex activities by targeting demand, to protect children from being exploited by such activities, to prohibit the operation of sex tours, to assist State and local governments to enforce laws dealing with commercial sex activities, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE; TABLE OF CONTENTS.

4 (a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the 5 “Domestic Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2004”.

6 (b) TABLE OF CONTENTS.—The table of contents for 7 this Act is as follows:

- Sec. 1. Short title; table of contents.
- Sec. 2. Findings and purposes.
- Sec. 3. Definitions.
- Sec. 4. Prosecution of purchasers, traffickers, and exploiters of commercial sex acts.
- Sec. 5. Strengthening prosecution and punishment of traffickers, purchasers, and exploiters of commercial sex acts.
- Sec. 6. Special operating group participation.
- Sec. 7. Reports.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.

2 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-
3 ings:

4 (1) The unlawful trafficking of persons for com-
5 mercial sexual activities has a devastating impact on 6 society.

7 (2) An alarming number of individuals who are 8 used for unlawful commercial sexual activities are 9 socially and economically marginalized, and kept in 10 effective bondage by threats or acts of physical and 11 sexual abuse. These individuals are victimized by the 12 prevalence of unlawful commercial sex. A dispropor-
13 tionate number of these victims are women and chil-
14 dren.

15 (3) Although current laws punish traffickers,
16 exploiters, and purchasers of unlawful commercial
17 sex activities, these laws are typically enforced dis-
18 proportionately against the individuals, predomi-
19 nantly women and girls, who are used in the unlaw-
20 ful activities, instead of against the traffickers, ex-

1 exploiters, and purchasers, who are predominantly
2 men.

3 (4) According to recent studies—

4 (A) 11 females used in unlawful commer-
5 cial sex acts were arrested in Boston for every 6 arrest of a male purchaser;

7 (B) 9 females used in unlawful commercial
8 sex acts were arrested in Chicago for every ar-
9 rest of a male purchaser; and

10 (C) 6 females used in unlawful commercial
11 sex acts were arrested in New York City for 12 every arrest of a male purchaser.

13 (5) Some studies reveal that unlawful commer-
14 cial sex is a frequent gateway crime for women who 15 later commit more serious criminal offenses. Over 70
16 percent of female inmates in American prisons were 17 first arrested for engaging in commercial sex acts.
18 For every 3 women in jails in the United States
19 today, 1 was arrested for prostitution, and 7 of 20 every 10 women imprisoned on felony convictions
21 were initially arrested for prostitution.

22 (6) The emotional and physical ramifications of 23 unlawful sex trafficking of children as well as women
24 are staggering, leading to an increased risk of—

25 (A) sexual and physical assault;

- 1 (B) violence;
- 2 (C) suicide;
- 3 (D) pregnancy;
- 4 (E) abortion;
- 5 (F) sexually transmitted diseases, includ-
- 6 ing AIDS;
- 7 (G) post-traumatic stress disorder; and
- 8 (H) death.

9 (7) Unlawful sex trafficking has a particularly
10 devastating and alarming impact upon children. Ac-
11 cording to some estimates, between 100,000 to 12 300,000 children are victimized by unlawful sex traf-
13 ficking at any given time. According to the 14 CyberTipline of the National Center for Missing and 15 Exploited Children, reports of child sexual exploi-
16 tation, including child pornography, child prostitu-
17 tion, online enticement of children, and child sex
18 tourism, have increased 750 percent over the past 5
19 years.

20 (8) Runaway children are especially vulnerable
21 to unlawful sex traffickers, who lure these children
22 into devastating lives as victims of commercial sex
23 acts, with promises of food, clothing, and shelter.

1 (9) According to the Office of Juvenile Justice
2 and Delinquency Prevention in the Department of
3 Justice, in 2002—

4 (A) over 1,300,000 children were missing
5 in the United States;

6 (B) as many as 775,000 of these children
7 are runaways; and

8 (C) 76 percent of runaway children who
9 call the National Runaway Switchboard are 10 girls under the age of 18.

11 (10) The United Nations estimates that unlaw-
12 ful sex trafficking, including sex tourism, generates
13 approximately $5,000,000,000 a year in revenues.
14 There are a number of United States-based compa-
15 nies that overtly and explicitly facilitate sex tours,
16 often involving the sexual exploitation of children.
17 According to some estimates, up to $\frac{1}{4}$ of inter-
18 national sex tourists are American.

19 (11) Under the Trafficking Victims Protection
20 Act of 2000 (22 U.S.C. 7101 et seq.), the United
21 States is committed to ending the international traf-
22 ficking of persons for slavery, including sex slavery.
23 The achievement of significant progress in reducing 24 unlawful sex trafficking within our own borders will
25 bolster United States efforts to eliminate inter-

1 national trafficking of persons for slavery, including
2 sex slavery, around the world.

3 (12) Stronger enforcement of laws prohibiting
4 commercial sex against traffickers, exploiters, and
5 purchasers may dramatically improve enforcement
6 and reduce the victimization of women and children
7 used in unlawful sex trafficking.

8 (13) Additional research and statistics at the 9 national, State, and local level will help us to under-
10 stand more fully the extent of unlawful commercial
11 sex activities within the United States, and the most
12 effective strategies for combating such unlawful ac-
13 tivities.

14 (b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this Act are—

15 (1) to support the development of more effective
16 means of combating unlawful commercial sex activi-
17 ties by targeting demand;

18 (2) to protect children from the predators and 19 exploiters who use them in commercial sex activities;

20 (3) to clarify that the operation of sex tours is 21 prohibited under Federal law; and

22 (4) to assist State and local governments in 23 their enforcement of existing laws dealing with com-
24 mercial sex activities.
