

H. Res. 409

In the House of Representatives, U.S.,

October 30, 2003.

Whereas the outgoing prime minister of Malaysia, Dr. Mahathir Mohamad, has become notorious over the years for his overt anti-Semitism and opposition to the State of Israel;

Whereas Dr. Mahathir opened the 57-nation, October 2003 summit of the Organization of the Islamic Conference in Malaysia by characterizing Israel and Jews around the world as “the enemy” who “rule the world by proxy”;

Whereas incendiary rhetoric of this nature can be neither excused nor rationalized;

Whereas Dr. Mahathir’s anti-Semitic remarks are despicable and could serve to incite further sectarian violence;

Whereas, among the 57 national representatives in attendance, none raised their voice in protest and many applauded Dr. Mahathir’s statements; and

Whereas President George W. Bush traveled to Thailand to attend the October 20–21, 2003, meeting in Bangkok of the leaders of Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) and rebuked Dr. Mahathir for his “wrong and divisive” remarks: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

(1) thoroughly repudiates the damaging rhetoric of the outgoing prime minister of Malaysia, Dr. Mahathir Mohamad, which embodies age-old stereotypes of Jewish global domination and grotesque anti-Semitism on an international scale;

(2) reaffirms the rebuke made by President George W. Bush of Dr. Mahathir and his injurious sentiments on October 20, 2003, stating that the remarks “stand squarely against what I believe”;

(3) calls upon other governments and international bodies, notably the European Union, to condemn these remarks as dangerous incitement; and

(4) deplores the tacit acquiescence of those national representatives in attendance at the October 2003 Organization of the Islamic Conference as willing complicity in spreading a message of hate and incitement against Jews.
