

109TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 12

Requiring the display of the Ten Commandments in the United States Capitol.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JANUARY 4, 2005

Mr. STEARNS submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on House Administration

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Requiring the display of the Ten Commandments in the United States Capitol.

Whereas the Ten Commandments have had a significant impact on the development of the fundamental legal principles of Western Civilization; and

Whereas the Ten Commandments set forth a code of moral conduct, observance of which is widely acknowledged to promote respect for our system of laws and the good of society: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That Congress—

3 (1) recognizes that the Ten Commandments are
4 a declaration of the fundamental principles that are
5 the cornerstone of a fair and just society; and

1 (2) directs that a copy of the Ten Command-
2 ments be prominently displayed in the United States
3 Capitol at such place and in such manner as the Ar-
4 chitect of the Capitol shall designate.
