CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Honoring the Native American tribes of the Pacific Northwest and the Treaties of 1855 between these tribes and the United States of America.

Whereas aboriginal peoples have inhabited the lands of the Pacific Northwest since time immemorial;

Whereas aboriginal peoples enrich our unique region with shared diversity and culture;

Whereas the Treaties of 1855 were understood by their signers to be solemn promises of peace and comity between the sovereign peoples of the Pacific Northwest and the United States of America and its citizens;

Whereas the United States of America should strive to preserve the promises made in the Treaties of 1855 to the tribes of the Pacific Northwest; and

Whereas the year 2005 marks 150 years after the Treaties of 1855 were signed: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That Congress recognizes the contributions of
3 the tribes of the Pacific Northwest and celebrates the
4 promises made 150 years ago between the Pacific North-
5 west tribes and the United States of America.
