

109TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 7

Expressing the sense of the Congress that there should be established a Free Enterprise Education Week to encourage schools and businesses to educate students about the free enterprise system.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JANUARY 4, 2005

Mr. KENNEDY of Minnesota submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Government Reform

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Congress that there should be established a Free Enterprise Education Week to encourage schools and businesses to educate students about the free enterprise system.

Whereas the United States values the free enterprise system as the basic economic system in the Nation;

Whereas the Nation's kindergarten, elementary, and secondary education system should strive to educate young Americans about the importance of the Nation's free enterprise system;

Whereas students' understanding of the Nation's free market system is an important part of the Nation's long-term economic growth;

Whereas American companies, student organizations, and teachers are willing and able to participate in educating young people about free markets and opportunities; and

Whereas many organizations, such as Students in Free Enterprise, have developed programs to teach and encourage entrepreneurship among students: Now, therefore, be it
