A BILL

To establish the Abraham Lincoln National Heritage Area, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as “Abraham Lincoln National 5 Heritage Area Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

1           (1) The Heritage Area is a cohesive assemblage
2 of natural, historic, cultural, or recreational re-
3 sources that—

4           (A) together represent distinctive aspects
5 of American heritage worthy of recognition,
6 conservation, interpretation, and continuing 7 use; and

8           (B) are best managed through partner-
9 ships between private and public entities.

10          (2) The Heritage Area reflects traditions, cus-
11 toms, beliefs, or folklife, or some combination there-12 of, that are a valuable part of the heritage of the 13 United States.

14          (3) The Heritage Area provides outstanding op-15 portunities to conserve natural, cultural, or historic 16 features, or a combination thereof.

17          (4) The Heritage Area provides outstanding
18 recreational and interpretive opportunities.

19          (5) The Heritage Area has an identifiable 20 theme and resources important to the theme retain 21 integrity capable of supporting interpretation.

22          (6) Residents, nonprofit organizations, other 23 private entities, and units of government throughout 24 the Heritage Area demonstrate support for designa-
25 tion of the Heritage Area as a national heritage area

1 and for management of the Heritage Area as appro-
2 priate for such designation.

3 (7) As our Nation enters the 21st Century,
4 there is a compelling need to educate and cultivate 5 among our citizens, particularly youth, an under-6 standing appreciation for, and a renewed commit-
7 ment to integrity, courage, self-initiative, and prin-
8 cipled leadership in public and private life.

9 (8) Few individuals in our Nation's history have 10 as broadly exemplified such qualities as Abraham
11 Lincoln, and few have so profoundly influenced 12 United States history and the Character of our Na-
13 tion as has our 16th president.

14 (9) The story and example of Lincoln's life-his 15 inspiring rise from humble origins to the highest of-16 fice in the land, and his decisive leadership through 17 the most harrowing and dangerous time in our Na-
18 tion's history, continues to bring hope and inspira-
19 tion to millions in our country and around the world.

20 (10) The great issues of Lincoln's time, na-
21 tional unity, equality and race relations, the capacity
22 for democratic government and ideals to address
23 these and related issues, continue to this day to de-
24 fine the challenges facing our Nation. The ideals 25 Lincoln espoused and the sentiments he expressed in

1 keeping our Nation together are as relevant today as 2 they were in his troubled time.

3 (11) Illinois is known throughout the world as 4 the land of Abraham Lincoln. Unquestionably, the 5 physical, social, and cultural landscape of Illinois
6 helped mold Lincoln’s character. “Here I have lived
7 a quarter of a century, and have passed from a 8 young to an old man,” Lincoln remarked on leaving.
9 “To this place and the kindness of these people I 10 owe everything”.

11 (12) Lincoln, in turn, left his own traces across 12 the Illinois landscape. They remain today in the 13 form of stories, folklore, artifacts, buildings,
14 streetscapes, and landscapes. Though scattered geo-15 graphically and in varying states of development and 16 interpretation, together they bring an immediacy
17 and tangible quality to the powerful Lincoln legacy.
18 Individually and collectively, they constitute an im-
19 portant national cultural and historic resource.

20 (13) In particular the stories and cultural re-
21 sources of the region’s Lincoln legacy__

22 (A) reflect the values and attitudes, the ob-
23 stacles and ingenuity, the failures and accom-24 plishments, the human frailties and strength of 25 character of the men and women who made up

1 the diverse people of Lincoln’s generation of 2 Americans, including upland Southerners and 3 Northeastern Yankees, Anglo-settlers and 4 American Indians, “free” blacks, abolitionists,
5 and their critics;

6 (B) reflect the material culture and rel-
7 ative levels of technical sophistication in the 8 United States in Lincoln’s time;

9 (C) recreate the physical environment, re-
10 vealing its impact on agriculture, transpor-
11 tation, trade, business, and social and cultural 12 patterns in urban and rural settings; and

13 (D) interpret the effect of the era’s demo-
14 cratic ethos on the development of our Nation’s 15 legal and political institutions and distinctive 16 political culture.

17 (14) Three previous studies—“Abraham Lin-
18 coln Research and Interpretive Center Suitability/
19 Feasibility Study” by the National Park Service
20 (1991), “Looking for Lincoln Illinois Heritage Tour-
21 ism Project” commissioned by the State of Illinois 22 Department of Commerce and Community Affairs in 23 cooperation with the Illinois Historic Preservation 24 Agency (1998), and the “Feasibility Study for the 25 Proposed Abraham Lincoln National Heritage Area”

1 revised in 2003, help document a sufficient assem-
2 blage of nationally distinctive historical resources to 3 demonstrate the feasibility and need to establish the 4 Heritage Area.

5 (15) The National Park Service operates and 6 maintains the Lincoln Home National Historic Site
7 in Springfield, Illinois, and is responsible for advo-
8 cating the protection and interpretation of the Na-
9 tion's cultural and historic resources and encour-10 aging the development of interpretive context for 11 these resources through appropriate planning and 12 preservation.

13 (16) The Heritage Area can strengthen, com-
14 plement, and support the Lincoln Home National 15 Historic Site through the interpretation and con-
16 servation of the associated living landscapes outside 17 of the boundaries of this historic site.

18 (17) There is a Federal interest in supporting 19 the development of a regional framework and con-
20 text to partner with and assist the National Park 21 Service, the State of Illinois, local organizations and 22 governments, and private citizens to conserve, pro-23 tect, and bring recognition to the resources of the 24 Heritage Area for the educational and recreational 25 benefit of this and future generations.

1           (18) Communities throughout this region know
2           the value of their Lincoln legacy, but need to expand
3           upon an existing cooperative framework and tech-
4           nical assistance to achieve important goals by work-
5           ing together.

6           (19) The State of Illinois, Department of Com-7           merce and Economic Opportunity, and Bureau of 8           Tourism officially designated “Looking for Lincoln”
9           as a State Heritage Tourism Area and has identified 10          the story of Lincoln as a key destination driver for 11          the State.

12          (20) Looking for Lincoln Heritage Coalition,
13          the management entity for the Heritage Area, is a 14          non-profit corporation created for the purposes of 15          preserving, interpreting, developing, promoting, and 16          making available to the public the story and re-
17          sources related to the story of Abraham Lincoln’s 18          adult life in Illinois and contributions to society and 19          would be an appropriate entity to oversee the devel-
20          opment of the Heritage Area.

21          (21) Looking for Lincoln Heritage Coalition
22          has completed a business plan that—

23                  (A) describes in detail the role, operation,
24                  financing, and functions of Looking For Lin-

1           coln Heritage Coalition, as the management en-2           tity; and

3                   (B) provides adequate assurances that 4           Looking For Lincoln Heritage Coalition is like-5           ly to have the financial resources necessary to 6           implement the management plan for the Herit-
7           age Area, including resources to meet matching 8           requirement for grants.
