6 (a) IN GENERAL.—Subsection (m) of section 6103 of 7 the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (relating to disclosure 8 of taxpayer identity information) is amended by adding 9 at the end the following new paragraph:

10 “(8) INDIVIDUALS CLAIMING TAX BENEFIT
11 USING IMPROPER SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS.—If
12 any State or local law enforcement agency has rea-
13 sonable cause to believe, based upon information be-14 lieved to be reliable, that an individual may have vio-
15 lated a law of such State by claiming a tax benefit
16 on any income tax return under this title using a 17 TIN of any person who is not such individual, such 18 individual’s spouse, or a dependent (as defined in 19 section 152) of such individual, the Secretary may 20 (upon written request from the head of such agency)
21 disclose the name, TIN, and mailing address of such 22 individual to officers and employees of such agency
23 exclusively for use in locating such individual.”

1 (b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendment made by
2 this section shall take effect on the date of the enactment
3 of this Act.
