1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Credit Card Minimum

3 Section 127(b) of the Truth in Lending Act (15

10 accompanied by an appropriate explanation, con-
11 taining—

12 “(i) the words ‘Minimum Payment Warn-
13 ing: Making only the minimum payment will in-14 crease the amount of interest that you pay and 15 the time it will take to repay your outstanding 16 balance.’;

17 “(ii) the number of years and months
18 (rounded to the nearest month) that it would 19 take for the consumer to pay the entire amount 20 of that balance, if the consumer pays only the 21 required minimum monthly payments;

22 “(iii) the total cost to the consumer, shown
23 as the sum of all principal and interest pay-24 ments, and a breakdown of the total costs in in-25 terest and principal, of paying that balance in 26 full if the consumer pays only the required min-

8 the consumer may receive information about ac-
9 cessing credit counseling and debt management

11 “(B)(i) Subject to clause (ii), in making the dis-
12 closures under subparagraph (A) the creditor shall 13 apply the interest rate in effect on the date on which 14 the disclosure is made.

15 “(ii) If the interest rate in effect on the date on 16 which the disclosure is made is a temporary rate
17 that will change under a contractual provision speci-
18 fying a subsequent interest rate or applying an index
19 or formula for subsequent interest rate adjustment, 20 the creditor shall apply the interest rate in effect on 21 the date on which the disclosure is made for as long
22 as that interest rate will apply under that contrac-23 tual provision, and then shall apply the adjusted in-24 terest rate, as specified in the contract. If the con-
25 tract applies a formula that uses an index that var-
