4 (1) individual charitable giving rates among 5 Americans have stagnated at 1.5 to 2.2 percent of 6 aggregate individual income for the past 50 years;

7 (2) a one percent increase (from two to three 8 percent) in charitable giving will generate over 9 $90,000,000,000 to charity;

10 (3) charitable giving is a significant source of 11 funding for health, education, and welfare programs;
12 and

13 (4) a one percent increase in charitable giving 14 may reduce the Federal deficit, reduce the call for

1 tax increases, and provide funds to benefit our na-
 2 tional health, education, and welfare goals.

3 (b) POLICY.—The Congress encourages all Ameri-
 4 cans to increase their charitable giving, with the goal of 5 increasing the annual amount of charitable giving in the 6 United States by one percent.

18 SEC. 303. SENSE OF THE CONGRESS REGARDING COR-
 19 PORATE CONTRIBUTIONS TO FAITH-BASED
 20 ORGANIZATIONS, ETC.

21 (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds as follows:

22 (1) America’s community of faith has long
 23 played a leading role in dealing with difficult societal 24 problems that might otherwise have gone
 25 unaddressed.

1           (2) President Bush has called upon Americans
2           “to revive the spirit of citizenship . . . to marshal
3           the compassion of our people to meet the continuing 4           needs of our Nation”.

5           (3) Although the work of faith-based organiza-
6           tions should not be used by government as an excuse
7           for backing away from its historic and rightful com-
8           mitment to help those who are disadvantaged and in 9           need, such organizations can and should be seen as 10          a valuable partner with government in meeting soci-
11          etal challenges.

12          (4) Every day faith-based organizations in the 13          United States help people recover from drug and al-14          cohol addiction, provide food and shelter for the 15          homeless, rehabilitate prison inmates so that they 16          can break free from the cycle of recidivism, and 17          teach people job skills that will allow them to move
18          from poverty to productivity.

19          (5) Faith-based organizations are often more
20          successful in dealing with difficult societal problems
21          than government and non-sectarian organizations.

22          (6) As President Bush has stated, “It is not 23          sufficient to praise charities and community groups;
24          we must support them. And this is both a public ob-
25          ligation and a personal responsibility.”.

1           (7) Corporate foundations contribute billions of 2       dollars each year to a variety of philanthropic 3       causes.

4           (8) According to a study produced by the Cap-
5       ital Research Center, the 10 largest corporate foun-
6       dations in the United States contributed 7       $1,900,000,000 to such causes.

8           (9) According to the same study, faith-based or-9       ganizations only receive a small fraction of the con-
10      tributions made by corporations in the United 11      States, and 6 of the 10 corporations that give the 12      most to philanthropic causes explicitly ban or re-
13      strict contributions to faith-based organizations.

14       (b) CORPORATIONS ENCOURAGED TO CONTRIBUTE
15   TO FAITH-BASED ORGANIZATIONS.—The Congress calls 16   on corporations in the United States, in the words of the 17   President, “to give more and to give better” by making 18   greater contributions to faith-based organizations that are 19   on the front lines battling some of the great societal chal-
20   lenges of our day.

21       (c) SENSE OF THE CONGRESS.—It is the sense of 22   Congress that—

23           (1) corporations in the United States are im-
24      portant partners with government in efforts to over-25      come difficult societal problems; and

1           (2) no corporation in the United States should 2       adopt policies that prohibit the corporation from 3       contributing to an organization that is successfully 4       advancing a philanthropic cause merely because such 5       organization is faith based.

6 SEC. 304. MATERNITY GROUP HOMES.

7       Section 322 of the Runaway and Homeless Youth Act
8       (42 U.S.C. 5714–2) is amended—

9           (1) in subsection (a)(1), by inserting “(includ-
10       ing maternity group homes)” after “group homes”;
11       and

12           (2) by adding at the end the following:

13       “(c) MATERNITY GROUP HOME.—In this part, the 14       term ‘maternity group home’ means a community-based, 15       adult-supervised group home that provides—

16           “(1) young mothers and their children with a 17       supportive and supervised living arrangement in 18       which such mothers are required to learn parenting
19       skills, including child development, family budgeting, 20       health and nutrition, and other skills to promote 21       their long-term economic independence and the well-22       being of their children; and

23           “(2) pregnant women with—

1           “(A) information regarding the option of 2           placing children for adoption through licensed
3           adoption service providers;

4           “(B) assistance with prenatal care and 5           child birthing; and

6           “(C) pre- and post-placement adoption 7           counseling.”.

8   SEC. 305. AUTHORITY OF STATES TO USE 10 PERCENT OF 9                   THEIR TANF FUNDS TO CARRY OUT SOCIAL
10                   SERVICES BLOCK GRANT PROGRAMS.

11       Section 404(d)(2) of the Social Security Act (42
12   U.S.C. 604(d)(2)) is amended to read as follows:

13           “(2) LIMITATION ON AMOUNT TRANSFERABLE
14       TO TITLE XX PROGRAMS.—A State may use not 15       more than 10 percent of the amount of any grant
16       made to the State under section 403(a) for a fiscal 17       year to carry out State programs pursuant to title
18       XX.”.
