A BILL

To reallocate funds toward sensible priorities such as improved children's education, increased children's access to health care, expanded job training, and increased energy efficiency and conservation through a reduction of wasteful defense spending, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Common Sense Budget
3 Act of 2006”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress finds the following:

6 (1) The Department of Defense’s increasingly 7 large budget provides for total defense spending that 8 is greater than that of the other 192 countries in the 9 world combined, yet—

10 (A) the United States now ranks 25th in 11 the world in infant mortality, behind most of 12 the nations of Western Europe and the indus-
13 trialized Far East, while $60,000,000,000 of 14 the United States defense budget is expended
15 annually on weapons designed to thwart Soviet 16 Union aggression during the Cold War and 17 other wasteful programs;

18 (B) Federal spending on elementary and
19 secondary education has fallen to less than 10
20 percent of the proposed 2007 outlays for the 21 Department of Defense, while schools through-22 out the Nation are eliminating programs in 23 music, foreign language, and physical edu-
24 cation;

25 (C) 61,000,000 individuals in the United
26 States lack health insurance during some period

1 of any given year, and half that number of indi-
2 viduals (over 10,000,000 of whom are children)
3 lack such insurance for the entire year;

4 (D) the Government Accountability Office
5 estimates that—

6 (i) $\frac{1}{3}$ of the Nation's public schools,
7 serving 14,000,000 children, need exten-
8 sive repair or need to have their entire 9 physical plants replaced;

10 (ii) 85 percent of the Nation's public
11 schools, 73,000 facilities serving
12 40,000,000 children, need some repair
13 work; and

14 (iii) the total cost for the repairs and
15 replacement described in this subpara-
16 graph is over $120,000,000,000;

17 (E) research conducted by the National
18 Center for Education Statistics shows that mid-
19 dle school students in the United States rank
20 18th in science test scores and 19th in math
21 test scores internationally, behind students in 22 such countries as the Republic of Korea, the 23 Slovak Republic, Singapore, the Russian Fed-
24 eration, and Malaysia; and

1 (F) the Government Accountability Office
2 estimated in 2003 that the Department of De-
3 fense could not account for over
4 $1,000,000,000,000 in funds appropriated to 5 the Department of Defense.

6 (2) The United States spends over
7 $20,000,000,000 annually to maintain its nuclear 8 arsenal, although many of the weapons in that arse-
9 nal no longer have practical utility. The United 10 States needs to eliminate spending on obsolete weap-
11 ons systems and use the funds saved to meet urgent
12 domestic needs for health care, education, job train-
13 ing, and increased energy efficiency and conserva-
14 tion.

15 (3) The Department of Defense is spending bil-
16 lions of dollars developing space weapons and pre-17 paring plans to deploy them, although—

18 (A) those expenditures and plans con-
19 travene White House policy, in place for a dec-
20 ade, that emphasizes arms control and non-21 proliferation pacts; and

22 (B) the development of those weapons is 23 opposed by many United States allies, who have 24 rightly stated that a shift in policy towards that 25 development will create an arms race in space.

1 (4) The United States needs to reduce its de-
2 pendence on foreign oil by promoting long-term en-
3 ergy security through greater investment in sustain-
4 able and renewable energy alternatives.

5 (5) The United States is facing unprecedented
6 challenges to national security and broader national 7 interests. Sustainable development and humanitarian 8 assistance programs should be a central part of 9 United States foreign policy. To address the root 10 causes of instability and terrorism and undercut the 11 ability of terrorist organizations to recruit effec-
12 tively, the United States needs to address the global 13 challenges of poverty, illiteracy, unemployment, dis-
14 ease, and disaster by increasing funding for sustain-
15 able development and humanitarian assistance pro-
16 grams.
