A BILL

To provide for a program under which postal benefits shall be made available for purposes of certain personal correspondence and other mail matter sent from within the United States to members of the Armed Forces serving on active duty abroad who are engaged in military operations, and for other purposes.

1        Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2        tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Supply Our Soldiers
3 Act of 2005”.

4 SEC. 2. POSTAL BENEFITS PROGRAM.

5 (a) IN GENERAL.—The United States Postal Service
6 and the Secretary of Defense shall provide for a program 7 under which postal benefits shall be made available to the 8 designated representative of each qualified individual in 9 accordance with succeeding provisions of this Act.

10 (b) QUALIFIED INDIVIDUAL DEFINED.—For pur-
11 poses of this Act, the term “qualified individual” means 12 an individual who is—

13 (1)(A) a member of the Armed Forces of the 14 United States on active duty (as defined in section 15 101 of title 10, United States Code) or a civilian 16 who is authorized to use postal services at Armed 17 Forces installations and holds a position or performs 18 one or more functions in support of military oper-
19 ations, as designated by the military theater com-20 mander; and

21 (B) serving in an overseas area, as designated 22 by the President, where the Armed Forces of the 23 United States are engaged in action against an 24 enemy of the United States, engaged in military op-25 erations involving armed conflict with a hostile for-26 eign force, engaged in temporary military operations

1 under arduous circumstances, serving with a friendly 2 foreign force in an armed conflict in which the 3 United States is not a belligerent, or temporarily de-
4 ployed overseas for an operational contingency in ar-
5 duous circumstances, as determined by the Secretary
6 of Defense; or

7 (2) hospitalized in a facility of the Armed 8 Forces of the United States as a result of disease or 9 injury incurred as a result of service in an overseas
10 area designated by the President under paragraph 11 (1)(B).

12 (c) POSTAL BENEFITS DESCRIBED.—

13 (1) IN GENERAL.—The postal benefits made 14 available to a designated representative pursuant to 15 this Act shall consist of postage stamps (of such de-
16 nomination or denominations as the Postal Service
17 may determine) equivalent to $150 in value per cal-
18 endar quarter, subject to subsection (d)(2)(B).

19 (2) CONDITIONS RELATING TO MAILINGS.—
20 Postal benefits under this Act may not be used for 21 the mailing of any mail matter other than mail mat-22 ter which—

23 (A) is described in paragraph (3);

24 (B) is sent—

1 (i) from within an area served by a
2 United States post office; and

3 (ii) by an individual or a charitable 4 organization; and

5 (C) is addressed to a qualified individual.

6 (3) MAIL MATTER DESCRIBED.—

7 (A) IN GENERAL.—The mail matter de-8 scribed in this paragraph is—

9 (i) any letter mail or sound- or video-
10 recorded communications having the char-11 acter of personal correspondence; and

12 (ii) any parcel not exceeding—

13 (I) 10 pounds in weight and 60
14 inches in length and girth combined,
15 if sent by an individual; or

16 (II) 70 pounds in weight and 180
17 inches in length and girth combined,
18 if sent by a charitable organization.

19 (B) RESTRICTION.—Postal benefits under 20 this Act may not be used for mail matter that 21 contains any advertising.

22 (4) DESIGN AND LIMITATIONS ON USE OF 23 STAMPS.—Stamps made available pursuant to this 24 Act—

1 (A) shall bear a design or other markings
2 to identify the military operation to which they 3 relate; and

4 (B) may not be used—

5 (i) after the date (following the con-
6 clusion of such military operation) des-7 ignated by the Secretary of Defense; or

8 (ii) with respect to any other military 9 operation.

10 (5) COORDINATION RULE.—Postal benefits
11 under this Act shall be in addition to, and not in lieu 12 of, any reduced rates of postage or other similar 13 benefits which might otherwise be available by or 14 under law, including any rates of postage resulting 15 from the application of section 3401(b) of title 39, 16 United States Code.

17 (d) REGULATIONS.—The Postal Service and the Sec-
18 retary of Defense shall jointly prescribe any regulations 19 necessary to carry out this Act, including regulations to 20 provide for the following:

21 (1) IDENTIFICATION OF DESIGNATED REP-
22 RESENTATIVES.—The identification of designated 23 representatives shall be made using procedures 24 under which—

1 (A) determinations shall be made based on 2 the most current next-of-kin data available to 3 or obtainable by the Secretary of Defense; and

4 (B) a qualified individual may supersede a 5 determination under subparagraph (A), to the 6 extent procedures to carry out this subpara-
7 graph are practicable.

8 (2) NOTICE TO AND ELECTIONS BY DES-
9 IGNATED REPRESENTATIVES.—

10 (A) NOTICE.—Notice shall be provided to 11 all designated representatives informing them of 12 their eligibility for postal benefits under this 13 Act and the procedures (including any dead-14 lines) for making an initial and any subsequent 15 election of benefits.

16 (B) ELECTIONS.—A designated represent-17 ative shall not receive any postal benefits under 18 this Act for any calendar quarter except upon 19 the filing of an appropriate written election. A 20 separate election under this subparagraph shall 21 be required for each calendar quarter, and each 22 such election shall require the individual to in-23 dicate whether full, partial (in the increments 24 allowed), or no benefits are requested for the 25 quarter. Failure to make an effective election

1           shall be treated as a declination of benefits for 2           the calendar quarter involved.

3           (C) NO CARRYOVER.—Any benefits de-4           clined with respect to a calendar quarter shall 5           not be available for purposes of any subsequent 6           calendar quarter.

7           (e) DIRECT BENEFITS FOR CHARITABLE ORGANIZA-
8           TIONS.—In addition to the benefits under subsections (a)
9           through (d), the Postal Service and the Secretary of De-10          fense shall by regulation allow any charitable organization
11          to apply for direct postal benefits. Applications for benefits 12          under this subsection shall be considered on a case-by-case 13          basis in accordance with such criteria as shall apply under 14          the regulations. Any benefits approved under this sub-15          section shall be governed by subsection (c), subject to any 16          modifications or special rules established by the regula-
17          tions which may be necessary to carry out the purposes 18          of this subsection (including an alternative to the limita-19          tion set forth in subsection (c)(1)).

20          (f) DEFINITION.—For purposes of this Act, the term 21          “charitable organization” means an organization that is 22          described in section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code
23          of 1986 and exempt from taxation under section 501(a)
24          of such Code.

1 SEC. 3. EFFECTIVE DATE.

2       This Act shall take effect on the first day of the first 3 fiscal year beginning after the date of the enactment of 4 this Act.
