2D SESSION

H. RES. 785

Honoring the lives and achievements of Christopher and Dana Reeve.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

APRIL 27, 2006

Mr. LANGEVIN (for himself and Mr. BARTON of Texas) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Energy and Commerce

RESOLUTION

Honoring the lives and achievements of Christopher and Dana Reeve.

Whereas Christopher Reeve was born on September 25, 1952;

Whereas Christopher Reeve graduated from Cornell University in 1974, then pursued his dream of acting by studying at Juilliard;

Whereas Christopher Reeve went on to become an accomplished actor on stage, screen, and television, and he secured his place in American history with his role in “Superman” and its subsequent sequels;

Whereas Christopher Reeve later distinguished himself as an author, a director, and a producer;

Whereas Dana Morisini was born on March 17, 1961;

Whereas Dana Morisini graduated from Middlebury College, where she later received an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters, and she pursued graduate studies in Acting at the California Institute of the Arts;

Whereas Dana Morisini was an accomplished singer and actress, with numerous appearances as an actor on television, performances in plays on Broadway, off-Broadway, and at numerous regional theaters, and performances as a singer on television and at various New York venues;

Whereas Christopher Reeve and Dana Morisini married on April 11, 1992;

Whereas their family included Christopher's two children Matthew and Alexandra Reeve, and, in 1992, they celebrated the birth of their son, Will;

Whereas, in 1995, Christopher Reeve was paralyzed in an accident in an equestrian competition;

Whereas, following the accident, Christopher Reeve dedicated himself to raising public awareness about the significance of medical research and the challenges faced by those with disabilities;

Whereas Dana Reeve displayed a remarkable commitment to improving the quality of life for individuals with paralysis and other disabilities, as well as their families;

Whereas, together, Christopher and Dana Reeve became role models for patients and their caregivers, inspiring many Americans to rise above obstacles;

Whereas Christopher and Dana Reeve worked together to establish the Christopher Reeve Foundation, with Christopher Reeve serving as chairman from 1999 to 2004 and Dana Reeve succeeding him as chair in 2004;

Whereas the Christopher Reeve Foundation has tremendously improved the quality of life for people with paralysis by establishing a Paralysis Resource Center with the Centers for Disease Control, raising the visibility of the condition and offering information and support to patients and caregivers;

Whereas the Christopher Reeve Foundation has helped make great strides in treating and finding a cure for paralysis;

Whereas the contributions that Christopher and Dana Reeve made to their family, their community, and the Nation will not be forgotten, including inspiring groundbreaking medical research, breaking down barriers faced by people with disabilities, and educating families about the importance of having adequate health and disability coverage; and

Whereas the deaths of Christopher Reeve from heart failure on October 10, 2004, and Dana Reeve from lung cancer on March 6, 2006, marked the loss of two great and generous Americans: Now, therefore, be it
