S. CON. RES. 22

Congratulating Bode Miller for winning the 2004–2005 World Cup overall title in Alpine skiing.

---

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MARCH 17, 2005

Mr. SUNUNU (for himself and Mr. GREGG) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

---

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Congratulating Bode Miller for winning the 2004–2005 World Cup overall title in Alpine skiing.

Whereas on March 12, 2005, Bode Miller became the first United States skier in 22 years to win the Alpine skiing World Cup overall title;

Whereas on the previous day Bode Miller won the World Cup super G title for the 2004–2005 season when he tied teammate Daron Rahlves for first place in the final super G race of the season;

Whereas Bode Miller won gold medals in the downhill and super G at the 2005 World Alpine Ski Championships in Bormio, Italy;

Whereas in the 2004–2005 season Bode Miller accomplished what only two other men have done in the history of the

Alpine skiing World Cup by leading the overall standings from the season's start to finish;

Whereas Bode Miller finished the 2004–2005 World Cup season with seven victories and became only the second athlete to win in all four disciplines (slalom, giant slalom, super G, and downhill) in a single season;

Whereas Bode Miller was raised in Easton, New Hampshire, began skiing at age 3 at nearby Cannon Mountain, and began competing at age 11;

Whereas in 1990 Bode Miller became a competitive ski racer at Carrabassett Valley Academy in Maine at age 13 and debuted in World Cup competition in 1998, finishing 11th in his first race;

Whereas Bode Miller has skied in every World Cup race over the last three seasons;

Whereas Bode Miller's career accomplishments include the 2003–2004 World Cup giant slalom title, six World Cup victories in 2004, two gold medals and a silver medal at the 2003 World Alpine Ski Championships, two Olympic silver medals, and six U.S. National Championships gold medals; and

Whereas Bode Miller's 2004–2005 championship season helped the entire U.S. Ski Team complete its most successful season ever by finishing second in the final 2005 Nations Cup standings: Now, therefore, be it

- 1        Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives
- 2        concurring), That the Congress—
- 3                (1) congratulates Bode Miller for winning the
- 4        2004–2005 World Cup overall title in Alpine skiing
