A BILL

To award a Congressional Gold Medal to Edward William Brooke III in recognition of his unprecedented and enduring service to our Nation.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Edward William
5 Brooke III Congressional Gold Medal Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 The Congress finds as follows:

1 (1) Edward William Brooke III was the first
2 African American elected by popular vote to the 3 United States Senate and served with distinction for 4 2 terms from January 3, 1967, to January 3, 1979.

5 (2) In 1960, Senator Brooke began his public
6 career when Governor John Volpe appointed him
7 chairman of the Boston Finance Commission, where 8 the young lawyer established an outstanding record
9 of confronting and eliminating graft and corruption
10 and proposed groundbreaking legislation for con-
11 sumer protection and against housing discrimination
12 and air pollution.

13 (3) At a time when few African Americans held 14 State or Federal office, Senator Brooke became an 15 exceptional pioneer, beginning in 1962, when he 16 made national and State history by being elected At-17 torney General of Massachusetts, the first African 18 American in the Nation to serve as a State Attorney
19 General, the second highest office in the State, and 20 the only Republican to win statewide in the election 21 that year, at a time when there were fewer than 22 1,000 African American officials in our Nation.

23 (4) He won office as a Republican in a state
24 that was strongly Democratic.

1 (5) As Massachusetts Attorney General, Sen-
2 ator Brooke became known for his fearless and hon-
3 est execution of the laws of his State and for his vig-
4 orous prosecution of organized crime.

5 (6) The pioneering accomplishments of Edward
6 William Brooke III in public service were achieved
7 although he was raised in Washington, DC at a time
8 when the Nation’s capital was a city where schools, 9 public accommodations, and other institutions were 10 segregated, and when the District of Columbia did
11 not have its own self-governing institutions or elect-
12 ed officials.

13 (7) Senator Brooke graduated from Paul Lau-
14 rence Dunbar High School and went on to graduate
15 from Howard University in 1941.

16 (8) Senator Brooke’s enduring advocacy for 17 self-government and congressional voting rights for 18 the citizens of Washington, DC has roots in his life
19 and personal experience as a native Washingtonian.

20 (9) Senator Brooke served for 5 years in the 21 United States Army in the segregated 366th Infan-
22 try Regiment during World War II in the European 23 theater of operations, attaining the rank of captain
24 and receiving a Bronze Star Medal for “heroic or

1 meritorious achievement or service” and the Distin-
2 guished Service Award.

3 (10) After the war, Senator Brooke attended
4 Boston University School of Law, where he served
5 as editor of the school’s Law Review, graduating 6 with an LL.B. in 1948 and an LL.M. in 1949, and 7 made Massachusetts his home.

8 (11) During his career in Congress, Senator
9 Brooke was a leader on some of the most critical 10 issues of his time, including the war in Vietnam, the 11 struggle for civil rights, the shameful system of 12 apartheid in South Africa, the Cold War, and United 13 States’ relations with the People’s Republic of 14 China.

15 (12) President Lyndon B. Johnson appointed
16 Senator Brooke to the President’s Commission on 17 Civil Disorders in 1967, where his work on discrimi-
18 nation in housing would serve as the basis for the 19 1968 Civil Rights Act.

20 (13) Senator Brooke continued to champion
21 open housing when he left the Senate and became 22 the head of the National Low-Income Housing Coa-
23 lition.

24 (14) Senator Brooke has been recognized with 25 many high honors, among them the Presidential

1 Medal of Freedom in 2004, an honor that recognizes
2 “an especially meritorious contribution to the secu-
3 rity or national interests of the United States, world
4 peace, cultural or other significant public or private 5 endeavors”; the Grand Cross of the Order of Merit
6 from the Government of Italy; a State courthouse
7 dedicated in his honor by the Commonwealth of 8 Massachusetts, making him the first African Amer-
9 ican to have a State courthouse named in his honor;
10 the NAACP Spingarn Medal; and the Charles Evans
11 Hughes award from the National Conference of 12 Christians and Jews.

13 (15) Senator Brooke’s biography, Bridging The 14 Divide: My Life, was published in 2006, and he is 15 the author of The Challenge of Change: Crisis in 16 Our Two-Party System, published in 1966.

17 (16) Senator Brooke became a racial pioneer,
18 but race was never at the center of his political cam-
19 paigns.

20 (17) He demonstrated to all that with commit-
21 ment, determination, and strength of character, even 22 the barriers once thought insurmountable can be 23 overcome.

1 (18) He has devoted his life to the service of 2 others, and made enormous contributions to our so-
3 ciety today.

4 (19) The life and accomplishments of Senator
5 Brooke is inspiring proof, as he says, that “people
6 can be elected on the basis of their qualifications
7 and not their race”.
