1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress makes the following findings:

3 (1) Nearly six years after the liberation of Af-
4 ghanistan from the Taliban, who provided Osama
5 Bin-Laden and Al-Qaeda with a safe haven for plan-
6 ning the attacks of September 11, 2001, Afghani-
7 stan remains highly unstable and the Government of 8 President Hamid Karzai remains subject to attacks
9 from remnants of the Taliban who have regrouped 10 along with other insurgent groups, including some 11 foreign fighters associated with Al-Qaeda.

12 (2) The Government of Afghanistan supports 13 the continued deployment of international forces to 14 supplement its own nascent national security forces,
15 and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization
16 (NATO), which took over international stability op-
17 erations for the entire country on October 5, 2006,
18 must show continued commitment to these oper-

1 ations in order to assist Afghanistan in defeating the 2 growing insurgency in rural areas of Afghanistan.

3 (3) The current United States counter-narcotics
4 strategy for Afghanistan has not produced signifi-
5 cant results, in part due to a failure to seek out and 6 capture high-level warlords and kingpins who control
7 the flow of illicit narcotics and because sufficient 8 sustainable alternatives have not been provided to 9 Afghan farmers who suffer from a lack of access to 10 microfinance facilities, financial services, and land
11 rights and whose crops are subject to eradication.

12 (4) In some cases, the misaligned eradication
13 policy endorsed by the United States Government
14 has led adversely-affected Afghan farmers and vil-15 lagers to support insurgent groups, including the 16 Taliban.

17 (5) The violence and instability in Afghanistan
18 is further exacerbated by the flourishing trade in 19 opium and opium-related crops, which has reached
20 record levels and which fuel local militias, corrupts
21 the national and local governments, and provides 22 funding for insurgent and terrorist groups.

23 (6) The United States and the international
24 community must continue to support Afghanistan
25 both through increased support for its national and

1 local police forces, the Afghan National Army, and 2 Afghan counter-narcotics operations.

3 (7) The United States and the international
4 community must also continue to support the growth
5 of the Afghan economy through foreign assistance
6 and other means because Afghanistan remains one 7 of the poorest countries in the world and economic 8 growth is impeded by the lingering remnants of 25
9 years of civil war and occupation and the ongoing in-10 stability since December 2001, including the growing
11 illicit drug economy.

12 (8) The United States and the international
13 community must also continue to show a long-term
14 commitment to support the promotion of democracy
15 and the protection of human rights in Afghanistan,
16 including increased assistance for the rule of law,
17 freedom of the press, freedom of association, free-
18 dom of religion, and other measures of good govern-
19 ance.

20 (9) From January 31 to February 1, 2006, the 21 Government of Afghanistan and the international 22 community issued the Afghanistan Compact, which 23 sets forth both the international community's com-
24 mitment to Afghanistan and Afghanistan's commit-

1 ment to state-building and reform over the next five 2 years.

3 (10) The Afghanistan Compact, which is sup-
4 ported by the Afghan National Development Strat-
5 egy, provides the core framework for building an ef-
6 fective, accountable state in Afghanistan, with goals
7 and standards set forth in the Afghanistan Compact
8 for improvements in security, governance, and devel-
9 opment, including measures for reducing the nar-
10 cotics economy, promoting regional cooperation, and 11 making aid more effective, particularly at the local 12 and provincial levels. The Afghanistan Compact also 13 established a mechanism to monitor Afghanistan
14 and the international community's adherence to the 15 timelines, goals, and objectives set forth in the docu-
16 ment.

17 (11) The security of Afghanistan is closely 18 intertwined with those of its regional neighbors and 19 success in Afghanistan, both economic and political,
20 will be dependent on security and stability in the re-
21 gion.

22 (12) The recent closure of four refugee camps
23 in Pakistan and the deportation of Afghans from 24 Iran have resulted in over 200,000 Afghan refugees

1 repatriating to Afghanistan who will require urgent
2 humanitarian services.

3 SEC. 3. DEFINITION.

5 provided, the term “appropriate congressional commit-

25 continue to work with the Government of Afghani-

1 stan and other friendly countries to ensure that Af-
2 ghanistan’s neighboring countries and other coun-
3 tries in the region do not threaten or interfere in one
4 another’s sovereignty, territorial integrity, or polit-
5 ical independence, including supporting diplomatic 6 initiatives to support this goal for the establishment
7 of an independent and neutral Afghanistan.

8 “(5) The United States must continue to dem-
9 onstrate a long-term commitment to the people of 10 Afghanistan by sustained assistance and the contin-
11 ued deployment of United States troops in Afghani-
12 stan with the support of the Government of Afghani-
13 stan as Afghanistan continues on its path toward a 14 broad-based, multi-ethnic, gender-sensitive, and fully 15 representative government in Afghanistan.

16 “(6) To foster stability and democratization
17 and to effectively eliminate the causes of terrorism,
18 the United States and the international community
19 should also support efforts that advance the develop-
20 ment of democratic civil authorities and institutions 21 in Afghanistan’s neighboring countries and through-
22 out the Central Asia and South Asia regions.

23 “(7) While rampant corruption has impeded de-24 velopment and economic growth in Afghanistan and 25 contributed to insecurity in the country, the United
