(3) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this section shall be construed to require informed consent for the prescription of dietary supplements and foods not requiring such informed consent prior to the date of the enactment of this Act.

(c) CLAIM EXCEPTIONS.—

(1) REPORTING BY A HEALTH CARE PRACTITIONER.—Subsection (b)(1)(D) shall not apply to an accurate and truthful reporting by a health care practitioner of the results of the practitioner's administration of a medical treatment in recognized journals, at seminars, conventions, or similar meetings, or to others, so long as the reporting practitioner has no direct or indirect financial interest in the reporting of the material and has received no financial benefits of any kind from the manufacturer, distributor, or other seller for such reporting. Such reporting may not be used by a manufacturer, distributor, or other seller to advance the sale of such treatment.

(2) STATEMENTS BY A PRACTITIONER TO A PATIENT.—Subsection (b)(1)(D) shall not apply to any statement made by a health care practitioner directly to a patient or prospective patient. SEC. 5. REPORTING OF A BENEFICIAL MEDICAL TREATMENT.

If a health care practitioner, after administering a medical treatment that is not an approved drug or medical device for a life-threatening medical condition or conditions, discovers that such medical treatment has, in the opinion of the health care practitioner, positive effects on such condition or conditions that are significantly greater than the positive effects that are expected from an approved medical treatment for the same condition or conditions, the practitioner shall—

(1) make a monthly reporting to the National Center for Complementary and Alternative Medicine at the National Institutes of Health of—

(A) the nature of such medical treatment (which is not a conventional medical treatment);

solely for use in accordance with this Act if there have been no advertising claims by the manufacturer, distributor, or seller of the food, drug, device, or equipment involved.

(b) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this Act shall be construed to limit or interfere with the authority of a health care practitioner to prescribe, recommend, provide, or administer to a patient for any medical condition or disease any unapproved drug or medical device that is lawful under the law of the State or States in which the health care practitioner practices.

SEC. 7. OTHER LAWS NOT AFFECTED BY THIS ACT.

Nothing in this Act shall be construed to—

(1) apply to the manufacturer, distribution, possession, or use of any drug that is a controlled substance under the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 801 et seq.);

(2) apply to statements or claims permitted or authorized under sections 403 and 403B of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 343, 343–2); or
