RESOLUTION

Recognizing the public service of Archbishop Patrick Flores.

Whereas Archbishop Patrick Flores became the first Mexican-American bishop in the United States on Cinco de Mayo, May 5, 1970;

Whereas Archbishop Flores was only the second Hispanic Archbishop in the United States;

Whereas Archbishop Flores served over 34 years in the Archdiocese of San Antonio;

Whereas Archbishop Flores retired in December 2004 with the longest active service of any Hispanic bishop in the United States;

Whereas Archbishop Flores has been a leader in developing the next generation of Hispanic leadership and in promoting multi-cultural understanding with the creation of the Mexican-American Cultural Center;

Whereas Archbishop Flores has been a leader in the foundation and growth of the Hispanic Scholarship Fund, which has provided over 78,000 scholarships in excess of $195 million to Hispanics across the United States;

Whereas Archbishop Flores has been a leader in the restoration of the historic San Fernando Cathedral;

Whereas Archbishop Flores has been a leader in promoting the economic development of long neglected neighborhoods in his Archdiocese;

Whereas Archbishop Flores has been a leader in the areas of civil rights, immigrant rights, public housing, public health, education, and the rights and welfare of the poor and the vulnerable; and

Whereas Archbishop Flores has been a leader in the effort to engage more young Catholics in service to their community, their country, and their Church: Now, therefore, be it
