APRIL 11, 2007

A BILL

To amend the Agriculture and Consumer Protection Act of 1973 to assist the neediest of senior citizens by modifying the eligibility criteria for supplemental foods provided under the commodity supplemental food program to take into account the extraordinarily high out-of-pocket medical expenses that senior citizens pay, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Senior Nutrition Act
3 of 2007”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress finds that—

6 (1) senior citizens in the United States have
7 significant out-of-pocket costs for medical expenses,
8 especially for prescription drugs;

9 (2) as medical costs continue to rise, many senior
10 citizens are forced to make the difficult choice
11 between purchasing prescription drugs and purchasing food;

13 (3) the commodity supplemental food program
14 provides supplemental nutritious foods to senior citizens in a number of States and localities;

16 (4) under the commodity supplemental food
17 program—

18 (A) women, infants, and children with 19 household incomes up to 185 percent of the 20 Federal Poverty Income Guidelines published
21 annually by the Department of Health and
22 Human Services may be eligible for supplemental foods; but

24 (B) senior citizens are ineligible for supplemental foods if their household incomes are

1 greater than 130 percent of the Federal Pov-
2 erty Income Guidelines;

3 (5) during fiscal year 2006—

4 (A) an average of 463,124 people each
5 month participated in the commodity supple-
6 mental food program; and

7 (B) the majority of those participants,
8 423,098, were senior citizens; and

9 (6) in order to serve the neediest senior citi-
10 zens, taking into account their high out-of-pocket
11 medical (including prescription drug) expenses, the 12 eligibility requirements for the commodity supple-
13 mental food program should be modified to make
14 more senior citizens eligible for the supplemental
15 foods provided under the program.

16 SEC. 3. ELIGIBILITY OF ELDERLY PERSONS UNDER THE
17 COMMODITY SUPPLEMENTAL FOOD PRO-
18 GRAM.
