

110TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 2424

To ensure that all Americans have basic health literacy skills to function effectively as patients and health care consumers.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

DECEMBER 6, 2007

Mr. COLEMAN (for himself, Mr. HARKIN, Mr. DOMENICI, Ms. KLOBUCHAR, Ms. COLLINS, and Ms. LANDRIEU) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions

A BILL

To ensure that all Americans have basic health literacy skills to function effectively as patients and health care consumers.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “National Health Lit-
5 eracy Act of 2007”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress makes the following findings:

8 (1) Low health literacy is a problem for half of 9 all American adults, or 100,000,000 individuals.

1 (2) Health literacy problems impact health care
2 cost, quality of care, and health outcomes.

3 (3) Ensuring that individuals have health lit-
4 eracy skills is critical to their ability to function ef-
5 fectively as patients and health care consumers.

6 (4) Health literacy skills are needed to commu-
7 nicate with health care providers, to understand self-
8 care instructions, to understand and complete med-
9 ical forms, to comply with treatment regimens, and
10 to complete a host of other important health care
11 tasks.

12 (5) Low health literacy costs billions of dollars
13 each year in avoidable health care expenses, the ma-
14 jority of which is borne by the Medicare and Med-
15 icaid programs.

16 (6) The elderly and chronically ill are among 17 those most at-risk of low health literacy. Those with 18 the greatest health care needs are the heaviest users
19 of health care and may be least able to respond to 20 their health situation.

21 (7) The Institute of Medicine's landmark report
22 published in 2004, "Health Literacy: A Prescription
23 to End Confusion", identifies health literacy as 24 "critical to successful health care".

1 (8) Former Surgeon General Carmona con-
 2 cluded that “health literacy can save lives, save
 3 money, and improve the health and well-being of 4 millions of Americans”.

5 SEC. 3. HEALTH LITERACY: STRATEGIC PLANNING, RE-
