

110TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

S. 3640

To secure the Federal voting rights of persons who have been released from incarceration.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

SEPTEMBER 26 (legislative day, SEPTEMBER 17), 2008

Mr. FEINGOLD (for himself, Mr. WHITEHOUSE, and Mr. CARDIN) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To secure the Federal voting rights of persons who have been released from incarceration.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Democracy Restoration
5 Act of 2008”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 The Congress makes the following findings:

8 (1) The right to vote is the most basic constitu-
9 tive act of citizenship. Regaining the right to vote

1 reintegrates offenders into free society, helping to 2 enhance public safety.

3 (2) Article I, section 4 of the Constitution of 4 the United States grants Congress ultimate super-
5 visory power over Federal elections, an authority
6 which has repeatedly been upheld by the Supreme 7 Court.

8 (3) Basic constitutional principles of fairness
9 and equal protection require an equal opportunity
10 for Americans to vote in Federal elections. The right 11 to vote may not be abridged or denied by the United 12 States or by any State on account of race, color, 13 gender or previous condition of servitude. The 14th
14 and 15th Amendments to the Constitution empower 15 Congress to enact measures to protect the right to 16 vote in Federal elections.

17 (4) There are three areas where discrepancies 18 in State laws regarding felony convictions lead to 19 unfairness in Federal elections: (A) there is no uni-20 form standard for voting in Federal elections which 21 leads to an unfair disparity and unequal participa-22 tion in Federal elections based solely on where a per-23 son lives; (B) laws governing the restoration of vot-
24 ing rights after a felony conviction are unequal
25 throughout the country and persons in some States

1 can easily regain their voting rights while in other 2 States persons effectively lose their right to vote per-3 manently; and (C) State disenfranchisement laws
4 disproportionately impact racial ethnic minorities.

5 (5) Disenfranchisement results from varying 6 State laws that restrict voting while under some 7 form of criminal justice supervision or after the com-
8 pletion of a felony sentence in some States. Two 9 States do not disenfranchise felons at all (Maine and 10 Vermont). Forty-eight States and the District of Co-11 lumbia have disenfranchisement laws that deprive 12 convicted offenders of the right to vote while they 13 are in prison. In thirty-five States, convicted offend-
14 ers may not vote while they are on parole and thirty 15 of these States disenfranchise felony probationers as 16 well. In ten States, a conviction can result in lifetime
17 disenfranchisement.

18 (6) An estimated 5,300,000 Americans, or 19 about one in forty-one adults, currently cannot vote
20 as a result of a felony conviction. Nearly 4,000,000 21 (74 percent) of the 5,300,000 disqualified voters are 22 not in prison, but are on probation or parole, or are 23 ex-offenders. Approximately 2,000,000 of those indi-
24 viduals are individuals who have completed their en-

1 tire sentence, including probation and parole, yet re-
2 main disenfranchised.

3 (7) In those States that disenfranchise ex-of-4 fenders, the right to vote can be regained in theory, 5 but in practice this possibility is often illusory. Of-6 fenders must either obtain a pardon or order from 7 the Governor or action by the parole or pardon
8 board, depending on the offense and State. Offend-
9 ers convicted of a Federal offense often have addi-
10 tional barriers to regaining voting rights.

11 (8) In at least 16 States, Federal offenders 12 cannot use the State procedure for restoring their 13 civil rights. The only method provided by Federal 14 law for restoring voting rights to ex-offenders is a 15 Presidential pardon. Few persons who seek to have 16 their right to vote restored have the financial and 17 political resources needed to succeed.

18 (9) State disenfranchisement laws dispropor-
19 tionately impact ethnic minorities. Thirteen percent 20 of the African-American adult male population, or 21 1,400,000 African-American men, are 22 disenfranchised. Given current rates of incarcer-
23 ation, three in ten of the next generation of black 24 men will be disenfranchised at some point during 25 their lifetime. Hispanic citizens are also dispropor-

1 tionately disenfranchised since they are disproport-
2 tionately represented in the criminal justice system.

3 (10) Disenfranchising citizens who have been 4 convicted of a felony offense and who are living and 5 working in the community serves no compelling 6 State interest and hinders their rehabilitation and 7 reintegration into society.

8 (11) State disenfranchisement laws suppress 9 electoral participation among eligible voters and 10 damage the integrity of the electoral process. State
11 disenfranchisement laws significantly impact the rate 12 of electoral participation among the children of 13 disenfranchised parents.

14 (12) The United States is the only Western de-
15 mocracy that permits the permanent denial of voting 16 rights to individuals with felony convictions.

17 SEC. 3. RIGHTS OF CITIZENS.

18 The right of an individual who is a citizen of the 19 United States to vote in any election for Federal office 20 shall not be denied or abridged because that individual has 21 been convicted of a criminal offense unless such individual 22 is serving a felony sentence in a correctional institution
23 or facility at the time of the election.

1 SEC. 4. ENFORCEMENT.

2 (a) ATTORNEY GENERAL.—The Attorney General
3 may, in a civil action, obtain such declaratory or injunctive
4 relief as is necessary to remedy a violation of this Act.

5 (b) PRIVATE RIGHT OF ACTION.—

6 (1) A person who is aggrieved by a violation of 7 this Act may provide written notice of the violation
8 to the chief election official of the State involved.

9 (2) Except as provided in paragraph (3), if the 10 violation is not corrected within 90 days after receipt 11 of a notice under paragraph (1), or within 20 days
12 after receipt of the notice if the violation occurred 13 within 120 days before the date of an election for 14 Federal office, the aggrieved person may, in a civil 15 action obtain declaratory or injunctive relief with re-
16 spect to the violation.

17 (3) If the violation occurred within 30 days be-18 fore the date of an election for Federal office, the 19 aggrieved person need not provide notice to the chief 20 election official of the State under paragraph (1) be-21 fore bringing a civil action to obtain declaratory or 22 injunctive relief with respect to the violation.

24 onment for a felony conviction).

1 (B) MISDEMEANOR CONVICTION.—In the 2 case of such an individual who has been con-
