RESOLUTION

Honoring Vice President Albert Gore, Jr., and the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change for receiving the 2007 Nobel Peace Prize, in recognition of their efforts to promote understanding of the threats posed by global warming.

Whereas the Norwegian Nobel Committee selected Vice President Albert Arnold (Al) Gore, Jr., and the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) as Nobel Peace Prize Laureates for 2007, acknowledging them “for their efforts to build up and disseminate greater knowledge about man-made climate change, and to lay the foundations for the measures that are needed to counteract such change”;

Whereas the Nobel Committee found that Vice President Gore “became aware at an early stage of the climatic challenges the world is facing”, and that his “strong commitment . . . has strengthened the struggle against climate change”;

Whereas the IPCC, according to the Nobel Committee, is composed of thousands of scientists and officials from more than 100 countries, has sponsored research and scientific collaboration over the last 2 decades and “has created an ever-broader informed consensus about the connection between human activities and global warming”; and

Whereas the Nobel Committee stated that Vice President Gore “is probably the single individual who has done most to create greater worldwide understanding of the measures that need to be adopted” to combat global warming: Now, therefore, be it
