

110TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

S. RES. 419

Honoring the life and extraordinary contributions of Diane Wolf.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JANUARY 22 (legislative day, JANUARY 3), 2008

Mr. STEVENS (for himself, Mr. BYRD, and Mr. COLEMAN) submitted the following resolution; which was considered and agreed to

RESOLUTION

Honoring the life and extraordinary contributions of Diane Wolf.

Whereas the Senate has heard with profound sorrow and deep regret of the untimely death of Diane Wolf, a member of the Senate Preservation Board of Trustees and a former distinguished member of the United States Commission of Fine Arts; and

Whereas for over 2 decades Diane Wolf devoted extraordinary personal efforts to and displayed great passion for the preservation and restoration of the United States Capitol Building, and was singularly instrumental in supporting and guiding the early efforts of the United States Capitol Preservation Commission and developing the plans for striking the coins commemorating the Bicentennial of the United States Capitol: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the Senate—

2 (1) honors the life and extraordinary contribu-
3 tions of Diane Wolf;

4 (2) conveys its sorrow and deepest condolences
5 to the family of Diane Wolf on her untimely death;
6 and

7 (3) requests the Secretary of the Senate to con-
8 vey an enrolled copy of this resolution to the family
9 of Diane Wolf.

○