Recognizing the cultural and historical significance of the Chinese New Year or Spring Festival.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

February 14, 2008

Mr. Reid submitted the following resolution; which was considered and agreed to

RESOLUTION

Recognizing the cultural and historical significance of the Chinese New Year or Spring Festival.

- Whereas the Chinese New Year is celebrated on the second new moon following the winter solstice;
- Whereas February 7, 2008, marks the first day of the Chinese New Year for 2008, also known as the Year of the Rat or the Year of Wu Zi;
- Whereas the Chinese New Year festivities begin on the first day of the first lunar month and end 15 days later with the celebration of the Lantern Festival;
- Whereas there are approximately 3,500,000 Chinese-Americans in the United States, many of whom will be commemorating this important occasion;

Whereas this day will be marked by celebrations throughout our country as Chinese-Americans gather to watch the dragon and lion dances; and

Whereas the United States Postal Service will debut a new stamp series for the 12 animals in the Chinese calendar on February 9, 2008, with the series continuing through 2019: Now, therefore, be it
