S. RES. 464

Designating March 1, 2008 as "World Friendship Day".

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

February 29, 2008

Mr. ISAKSON (for himself and Mr. CARPER) submitted the following resolution; which was considered and agreed to

RESOLUTION

Designating March 1, 2008 as "World Friendship Day".

- Whereas it should be the goal of all Americans to promote international understanding and good will;
- Whereas personal friendships among individual citizens can foster greater understanding among nations and cultures;
- Whereas people all over the world have travelled or opened their homes as hosts in order to promote international understanding;
- Whereas nonprofit organizations such as Friendship Force International, which was founded in Atlanta, Georgia, in 1977, have helped to promote such international exchanges;
- Whereas, today, there are more than 35,000 members of Friendship Force International in 40 States and 58 foreign countries who are building bridges across the cultural barriers that separate people; and

Whereas, in order to celebrate on an annual basis the cause of peace through international understanding, March 1, 2008 should be recognized as World Friendship Day: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the Senate—

- (1) honors those who promote international understanding and good will in the world; and
- 4 (2) designates March 1, 2008 as "World 5 Friendship Day", and asks people everywhere to 6 mark and celebrate the day appropriately.
