

111TH CONGRESS
2^D SESSION

H. CON. RES. 319

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

SEPTEMBER 29, 2010

Received

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Recognizing the anniversary of the tragic shootings that occurred at Fort Hood, Texas, on November 5, 2009.

Whereas, on November 5, 2009, a gunman entered the Soldier Readiness Processing Center at Fort Hood, Texas, and opened fire on military and civilian personnel who were preparing for deployment or who had recently returned to the United States from overseas;

Whereas 13 people were killed, including 12 soldiers, one of whom was an expecting mother, and one former soldier;

Whereas 31 people were wounded, and some of the wounded required months of care and rehabilitation;

Whereas civilian and military law enforcement personnel of the Department of Defense acted swiftly and courageously to neutralize the threat;

Whereas Army medics immediately began treating the wounded, greatly reducing the loss of life;

Whereas nearby Army personnel selflessly evacuated wounded individuals to safety prior to the threat being eliminated; and

Whereas the Fort Hood regional communities, the State of Texas, military service organizations and countless Americans united in support of the Fort Hood victims and their families: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That Congress—

3 (1) recognizes the shootings that occurred at
4 Fort Hood, Texas, on November 5, 2009, as a tragic
5 event in the history of the Army and the United
6 States;

7 (2) extends its deepest sympathies to the fami-
8 lies and friends of the victims of the shootings who
9 had already sacrificed a great deal by righteously
10 answering their country's call to serve;

11 (3) honors the civilian law enforcement per-
12 sonnel of the Department of Defense for effectively

1 implementing their training to promptly eliminate
2 the threat, thereby limiting additional loss of life or
3 injury;

4 (4) commends the Fort Hood command team
5 for its timely response and situational control; and

6 (5) expresses gratitude to the Fort Hood com-
7 munities, military personnel stationed at Fort Hood,
8 military service organizations, and the American
9 people for promptly extending comfort and assist-
10 ance to the victims of the shootings and their fami-
11 lies.

Passed the House of Representatives September 28, 2010.
