

111TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. CON. RES. 330

Recognizing and honoring the commitment and sacrifices of military families of the United States.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

NOVEMBER 16, 2010

Mr. BISHOP of Georgia (for himself and Mrs. McMORRIS RODGERS) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Armed Services

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Recognizing and honoring the commitment and sacrifices of military families of the United States.

Whereas November marks Military Family Month;

Whereas the freedom and security the citizens of the United States enjoy today are a result of the continued dedication and vigilance of the Armed Forces throughout the history of the United States;

Whereas the security of the United States depends on the readiness and retention of the men and women of the Armed Forces, a force comprised of active, National Guard, and Reserve personnel;

Whereas military families are an integral source of strength for the soldiers, sailors, marines, airmen, and coastguardsmen of the United States, and have continually proven their dedication, service, and willingness to make great sacrifices in support of servicemembers of the United States;

Whereas military families often endure unique circumstances that are central to military life, including long separations from their loved ones, the uncertainty and demands of multiple deployments, school and job transfers, and frequent moves from communities where they have established roots and relationships;

Whereas military family members have become the central support system for each other as they reinforce units through family readiness efforts and initiatives, support servicemembers within the units, and reach out to the families whose loved ones have been deployed; and

Whereas it is important to recognize the sacrifices, support, and dedication of the families of the men and women who serve in the Armed Forces: Now, therefore be it
