

111TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 67

Expressing the sense of Congress that Lena Horne should be recognized as one of the most popular performers of the 1940s and 1950s and for her outspoken opposition to racial and social injustice.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FEBRUARY 26, 2009

Mr. RANGEL submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform

---

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of Congress that Lena Horne should be recognized as one of the most popular performers of the 1940s and 1950s and for her outspoken opposition to racial and social injustice.

Whereas Lena Horne was born on June 30, 1917, in Brooklyn, New York;

Whereas Horne left school at the age of 14 and took her first stage job in order to help contribute to the family during the Depression;

Whereas Horne began singing at Harlem's famed Cotton Club at age 16 and began performing on Broadway soon after;

Whereas Horne was 21 when she performed in her first feature role, "The Duke is Tops", after having taken a number of smaller roles that were often all that was available to blacks in Hollywood at the time;

Whereas Horne was eventually signed with MGM studios, making her the first African-American to be signed to a long-term film contract, only to find that she was edited out of films that were distributed in the South;

Whereas Horne performed in “Cabin in the Sky” in 1943, which is often regarded as the premier performance of her career; and

Whereas Lena Horne continues to represent elegance, Hollywood glamour, wisdom, and the strength and determination of an entire generation of performers who struggled through racism and prejudice during the height of their careers: Now, therefore, be it

1        Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
 2 concurring), That it is the sense of Congress that Lena
 3 Horne should be recognized for her achievements as a
 4 singer and Hollywood actress, for her contributions to the
 5 struggles for equality, and for using her celebrity as a cat-
 6 alyst for change.

○