15 (3) Television channels that broadcast incite-
16 ment to violence against Americans, the United 17 States, and others have demonstrated the ability to

20 to continue broadcasting and to evade account-
21 ability.

22 (4) Television channels such as al-Manar, al-
23 Aqsa, al-Zawra, and others that broadcast incite-
24 ment to violence against the United States and 25 Americans aid Foreign Terrorist Organizations in

1 the key functions of recruitment, fundraising, and 2 propaganda.

3 (b) STATEMENT OF POLICY.—It shall be the policy
4 of the United States to—

6 Terrorists satellite providers that knowingly and 7 willingly contract with entities designated as Spe-

9 Order No. 13224, to broadcast their channels, or to 10 consider implementing other punitive measures
11 against satellite providers that transmit al-Aqsa TV,
12 al-Manar TV, al-Rafidayn TV, or any other terrorist
13 owned and operated station;

14 (2) consider state-sponsorship of anti-American 15 incitement to violence when determining the level of 16 assistance to, and frequency and nature of relations 17 with, all states; and

18 (3) urge all governments and private investors
19 who own shares in satellite companies or otherwise 20 influence decisions about satellite transmissions to 21 oppose transmissions of telecasts by al-Aqsa TV, al-
22 Manar TV, al-Rafidayn TV, or any other Specially
23 Designated Global Terrorist owned and operated
24 stations that openly incite their audiences to commit

1 acts of terrorism or violence against the United 2 States and its citizens.
