1ST SESSION

H. R. 3551

To protect older Americans from misleading and fraudulent marketing practices, with the goal of increasing retirement security.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

SEPTEMBER 10, 2009

Mr. HODES (for himself and Ms. MOORE of Wisconsin) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, and in addition to the Committee on Financial Services, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To protect older Americans from misleading and fraudulent marketing practices, with the goal of increasing retirement security.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Senior Investment Pro-
5 tection Act of 2009”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds that—

1 (1) many seniors are targeted by salespersons
2 and advisers using misleading certifications and pro-
3 fessional designations;

4 (2) many certifications and professional des-
5 ignations used by salespersons and advisers rep-
6 resent limited training or expertise, and may in fact
7 be of no value with respect to advising seniors on fi-
8 nancial and estate planning matters, and far too 9 often, such designations are obtained simply by at-10 tending a weekend seminar and passing an open
11 book, multiple choice test;

12 (3) many seniors have lost their life savings be-
13 cause salespersons and advisers holding a misleading
14 designation have steered them toward products that 15 were unsuitable for them, given their retirement
16 needs and life expectancies;

17 (4) seniors have a right to clearly know whether 18 they are working with a qualified adviser who under-19 stands the products and is working in their best in-20 terest or a self-interested salesperson or adviser ad-
21 vocating particular products; and

22 (5) many existing State laws and enforcement
23 measures addressing the use of certifications, profes-
24 sional designations, and suitability standards in sell-25 ing financial products to seniors are inadequate to

1 protect senior investors from salespersons and advisers
2 using such designations.

3 SEC. 3. DEFINITIONS.

4 As used in this Act—

5 (1) the term “misleading designation”—

6 (A) means the use of a purported certification,
7 professional designation, or other credential,
8 that indicates or implies that a salesperson
9 or adviser has special certification or 10 training in advising or servicing seniors; and

11 (B) does not include any legitimate certification, 12 professional designation, license, or 13 other credential, if—

14 (i) it has been offered by an academic 15 institution having regional accreditation; or

16 (ii) it meets the standards for certifications,
17 licenses, and professional designations outlined
18 by the North American Securities Administrators
19 Association (in this Act referred to as the “NASAA”) Model
20 Rule on the Use of Senior-Specific Certifications
21 and Professional Designations, or 22 it was issued by or obtained from any 23 State;
24

1 (2) the term “financial product” means securi-
 2 ties, insurance products (including insurance prod-
 3 ucts which pay a return, whether fixed or variable),
 4 and bank and loan products;

5 (3) the term “misleading or fraudulent mar-
 6 keting” means the use of a misleading designation
 7 in selling or advising a senior in the sale of a finan-
 8 cial product;

9 (4) the term “senior” means any individual who 10 has attained the age of 62 or older; and

11 (5) the term “State” means each of the 50
 12 States, the District of Columbia, and the unincor-
 13 porated territories of Puerto Rico and the U.S. Vir-
 14 gin Islands.
