7 “(A) the notice of removal may assert the 8 amount in controversy if the initial pleading seeks—

9 “(i) nonmonetary relief; or

10 criminal prosecution shall be filed not later than 30 days
11 after the arraignment in the State court, or at any time
12 before trial, whichever is earlier, except that for good
13 cause shown the United States district court may enter 14 an order granting the defendant or defendants leave to 15 file the notice at a later time.

16 “(2) A notice of removal of a criminal prosecution 17 shall include all grounds for such removal. A failure to 18 state grounds that exist at the time of the filing of the 19 notice shall constitute a waiver of such grounds, and a 20 second notice may be filed only on grounds not existing 21 at the time of the original notice. For good cause shown, 22 the United States district court may grant relief from the 23 limitations of this paragraph.

24 “(3) The filing of a notice of removal of a criminal 25 prosecution shall not prevent the State court in which such

1 prosecution is pending from proceeding further, except 2 that a judgment of conviction shall not be entered unless 3 the prosecution is first remanded.

4 “(4) The United States district court in which such 5 notice is filed shall examine the notice promptly. If it
6 clearly appears on the face of the notice and any exhibits
7 annexed thereto that removal should not be permitted, the 8 court shall make an order for summary remand.

9 “(5) If the United States district court does not order
10 the summary remand of such prosecution, it shall order 11 an evidentiary hearing to be held promptly and, after such 12 hearing, shall make such disposition of the prosecution as 13 justice shall require. If the United States district court
14 determines that removal shall be permitted, it shall so no-
15 tify the State court in which prosecution is pending, which 16 shall proceed no further.

17 “(c) WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS.—If the defendant
18 or defendants are in actual custody on process issued by 19 the State court, the district court shall issue its writ of 20 habeas corpus, and the marshal shall thereupon take such
