RESOLUTION

Recognizing the 100th anniversary of the establishment of the McKay-Dee Hospital in northern Utah.

Whereas McKay-Dee Hospital and its predecessors have offered 100 years of continuous health care service to the residents of northern Utah from 1910 to 2010;

Whereas tens of thousands of hardworking individuals have devoted their lives to the care, concern, and healing of patients at the three hospitals that have become Intermountain McKay-Dee Hospital and Medical Center;

Whereas hundreds of thousands of Utah residents have received medical care during McKay-Dee's 100 years of service;

Whereas McKay-Dee Hospital represents the fulfillment of Annie Taylor Dee's dream to provide access to high quality health care for the residents of northern Utah;

Whereas McKay-Dee Hospital's contributions to the community at-large come in many more ways than simply providing traditional hospital-based health care services;

Whereas every Dee, McKay, and McKay-Dee facility has offered innovative medical technology; and

Whereas Intermountain Healthcare was recently recognized as a national model for providing quality and affordable healthcare: Now, therefore, be it

1       Resolved, That the House of Representatives—
